DOCUMENTARY: TRIANGLE FIRE

Tuesday, March 14, 2017

1:00pm – 2:00pm

Decathlon Room (2nd floor above bookstore)

Learn about the tragedy of the March 25, 1911 Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire, one of the deadliest industrial disasters in US history, that took the lives of 123 women. Learn about the impact it had on creating safer working conditions, minimum wage laws, maximum hour laws, and the recognition of the importance of workers in our economy.

Presented for Women's History Month: Honoring Trailblazing Women in Labor and Business
