

The Vocabulary of Real Estate CDs may be purchased through the Bookstore or from any other source. The Vocabulary Test is taken almost word-for-word from this. You need to turn in the test that is assigned according to the instruction page.

You may use a Real Estate Dictionary, your textbook, Internet sources or any other method of locating definitions to the vocabulary words. Much of the state license exam is based upon your knowledge of vocabulary words and definitions.

After you turn in the one vocabulary test assigned to you, use the other ones after you complete the course to help you study for the state examination.
