

Goals and Taking Control

Strategies for Success 3

Focus on Homework/Studying - Follow Up

Name: _____

Team: _____

Objective: To identify strategies for taking control of your homework and studying.

These are the strategies listed by most groups that pertained to homework and studying. We are now in the 13th week of the semester and time to re-visit some of these ideas.

Individual Questions:

a) Mark each box that applies.

	I use this strategy			Points
	never	sometimes	weekly
1. Get all homework questions answered.
2. Take time out to study.
3. Practice.
4. Make a study group
5. Focus on homework to learn.
6. Read textbook before coming to class.

b) Calculate your homework and studying grade. For each "sometimes", give yourself 2 points, and for each "weekly", give yourself 4 points. Find the average by adding your points and dividing by 6.

c) Are you satisfied with your current grade in this class? Would you like to improve your grade? What grade do you expect to receive in this class?

d) Which of the strategies listed above will you employ in the next three weeks to maintain or improve your grade? How?

c) Make an end-of-semester goal for yourself. Complete the sentence.

I promise to

Group Discussion:

List some strategies that the each of you can do to help the others in the group meet their goals.