REQUIRED COURSE INFORMATION

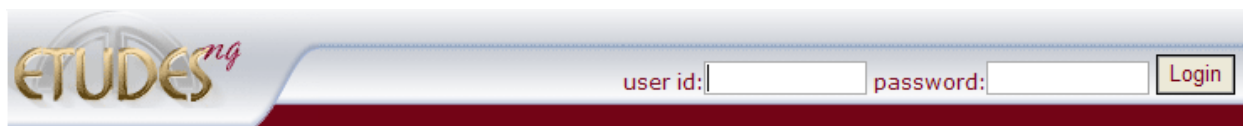

You must contact me at adevaney@elcamino.edu before the start of the semester. This course fills quickly and I have many students wanting to add. If you do not contact me, you may be dropped.

Click here for the course syllabus if you would like to purchase your materials early.

Please take the Distance Education Online Class Self Assessment to ascertain if you will be successful in an online course. Mail your final score to adevaney@elcamino.edu before the semester begins.

Textbook: Opening Doors: Understanding College Reading 5th edition can be purchased online @: www.coursesmart.com/0077245113 (ebook version for $42.75) just type in the title of the textbook. A print version is also available in the El Camino Bookstore ($70.00 +) (It must be the 5th edition.)

Novel: And Still We Rise by Miles Corwin at www.amazon.com or any other online bookstore. Copies will also be available in the El Camino Bookstore. It can take 7 – 10 days to receive the novel. Make sure you have the novel IN YOUR HANDS when class begins. Winter and summer sessions go by wicked fast and if you do not have your novel, you will have difficulty keeping up with the class work.
