EL CAMINO COLLEGE CAMPUS ALERT

The El Camino College Police Department reported an incident where four unknown male suspects allegedly assaulted a female student in a restroom in the Natural Sciences Building. The incident occurred at about 3:00 p.m. on March 5, 2009, but was not reported to El Camino College Police until March 20, 2009. An investigation is currently underway into this incident.

Suspect Descriptions:

- Suspect #1: Male black adult, approximately 20 years old, about 6'3" with a medium 'muscular' build; 'natural style' nearly full beard with a thin mustache
 - Wearing a black baseball style hat with an orange visor, a black t-shirt with what appeared to be a white t-shirt underneath, and unknown color shorts.
 - Suspect's right lower leg/calf area has a large scar, approximately ten inches long and one inch wide. He also had what appeared to be two earrings in his left ear - one a yellow metal in the shape of a five-pointed star, the second a square shape with a yellow stone setting.
- Suspect #2: Male black adult approximately 20 years old, 5'10" with a skinny build and dark skin color,
 - Wearing a black tight-fitting 'dew rag' skull cap, grey t-shirt and blue jeans.
- Suspect #3: Male black adult approximately 20 years old, 5'9" with a medium 'muscular' build and medium skin color, short hair in a 'fade' style haircut.
 - Wearing a brown or tan shirt with long sleeves.
- Suspect #4: is described as a male black adult approximately twenty years old, 5'10" with light skin color,
 - Wearing a white long sleeve shirt ('Under Armor' type) under a white short sleeve t-shirt.
 - He had what appeared to be a mole on his face, in the area of the left upper cheek, about 1/4" in diameter.

Cadets have been assigned to patrol the building, and the halls are under increased supervision by police personnel.

El Camino College Police again remind the campus community to be vigilant about safety – in all situations and locations. Police advise everyone to walk in a group or at least with one other person at night, use the campus shuttle service, and to put away distracting items such as music listening devices and cell phones.

If anyone has any information about the suspects or witnessed the incident, please contact the
El Camino College Police Department

El Camino College Police again remind the campus community to be vigilant about safety and to call 911 immediately if you feel you are in danger – in all situations and locations. Police advise everyone to walk in a group or at least with one other person at night, use the campus shuttle service, and to put away distracting items such as music listening devices and cell phones.

Important Safety Reminders

- Have keys in hand before walking to your car
- Always be aware of your surroundings – remember the use of electronic music listening devices and cell phones may significantly distract you
- Don't walk alone
- Use the buddy system
- Learn the location of "Code Blue" POLICE phones located throughout campus. These phones are directly linked to the college Police Department and are considered 911 priority lines. Students and staff are encouraged to utilize these phones for any emergency
- Use ECC Courtesy Shuttle operated by ECC Police from 5:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. Use one of the POLICE phones located throughout campus, or call campus police 310-660-3100 for this service.
- In an emergency contact campus police by using one of the POLICE phones on campus; calling 911 from any pay phone on campus; or by calling 310-660-3100 from a cell phone
- Night students and faculty are encouraged to park in the same general area as other faculty or students with night classes in their building; this provides the opportunity for a group of students and faculty to walk to their cars after dark
- Immediately report any suspicious activity to campus police
