Update

Wednesday, September 23, 2015

El Camino College Police released a sketch today of a man who allegedly robbed a student in the upper portion of Lot F on September 3, as reported in a previous Campus Advisory.

The sketch is part of an ongoing police investigation of the incident, in which an ECC student was sitting in his car at about 12:55 p.m. when he was reportedly approached by two male Latino suspects.

The above pictured suspect knocked on the window and asked the victim a few questions. The suspect then brandished what appeared to be a blue steel revolver and proceeded to take several personal items from the victim. The victim described the suspect to be approximately 20-25 years of age, dark complexion, medium build, 170 pounds, 5-foot, 6-inches tall, with tattoos on both arms but most notably tattoos of unknown letters covering his entire neck.

Anyone with information related to this crime should contact Detective Ruben Lopez at the El Camino College Police Department, 310-660-3100.
