

PRIDE!

El Camino College

Please join us for a fun week of free events as we celebrate our LGBTQIA+ students with music, live performances, food, photo booth, on and off campus resource fair, movie screening, and meaningful learning opportunities.

May 13th - May 16th

#ElCoPrideWeek

Sponsored by The Student Equity Program & The Gender Sexuality Alliance Student Club

Monday, May 13th 1-2:30p.m.

Alternate Genders Cross Culturally

Come and learn about alternate genders in different cultures through an anthropological lens. Following the talk will be an outdoor reception.

Hosted by: Professor Angela Mannen and GSA Students

Location: Art Building, 3rd Floor, Room 301

Tuesday, May 14th 12-2p.m.

EiCo Pride Fest

Celebrate the LGBTQIA+ student community and their efforts towards equality with food, music, live performances, a photo booth, and resource fair.

Hosted by: Counselor Salvador Navarro and GSA Student Jayla Dawn

Location: Library Lawn (Student Activities Center Outdoor Stage)

Wednesday, May 15th 4-6p.m.

LGBTQIA+ Students and the People Who Love Them

A panel discussion with LGBTQIA+ students, their parents, and the allies who love them.

Followed by an open discussion.

Hosted by: Counselor Salvador Navarro, Erika Knox and GSA Students

Location: Distance Education Room

Thursday, May 16th 4-7p.m.

Film Screening: Love, Simon

Join us in watching Love, Simon! A movie about a self-identified gay high school student who goes through the process of self-acceptance and coming out to his loved ones. Followed by an open discussion.

Hosted by: Professor Angela Simon and GSA Students

Location: Music Building Room 134

