- The club's charter is in good standing and has not been revoked by the Inter-Club Council
- The club's purpose has not changed
- The club is composed of ten or more registered ECC students.
- The club has at least one ECC faculty adviser (it is advisable to contact the past adviser, but not mandatory that the adviser be the same person)
- The club members adhere to the club's existing constitution
- Any revisions to the club's constitution must be done in accordance with provisions in the club's existing constitution.
- A current copy of the club's constitution is filed in the Student Development Office.

Procedures for Reactivating an Existing Club

Those students wishing to reactivate the club should follow these procedures:

1. Submit a "Notice to Reactivate a Club" containing the signatures of ten club members and the club's faculty adviser(s) to the ICC Adviser in the Student Development Office. A copy of the club's existing constitution must be attached to the petition. Upon verification of the 10 ECC student members, the ICC Review Board Commissioner will report the club's activation to the Inter-Club Council and file the petition and constitution in the Student Development Office.
2. Submit a Calendar Date Requisition at the Student Development office to schedule a meeting room on campus. Officer elections should take place at the first or second meeting of the club.

What is a Club?

Clubs may be formed to develop awareness of culture, expand students' interests, create a social outlet, and/or provide service to the campus and community. Free association and the right to organize are the key ingredients to productive campus clubs.

El Camino College has sanctioned student organizations to function on campus through the guidelines developed in Board Policy 5401. The Inter-Club Council (I.C.C.) is the body that has been authorized to charter new clubs as well as revoke the charters of existing clubs. A student organization will be recognized if they meet the following requirements:

1. Are composed of ten or more registered ECC students.
2. Have a faculty adviser who shall attend all club meetings, activities and trips scheduled on-campus or off-campus.
3. Hold all meetings at the College during the regular school day.
4. Use a democratic plan for the selection of members without regard for race, religion, sex, or national origin.
5. Have been duly chartered by the Inter-Club Council.
6. Have a current written constitution on file in the Student Development Office.

The advantages of becoming a sanctioned campus club are that the organization may:

- Use the name of the College as part of the organization's name
- Schedule campus facilities
- Recruit students on campus
- Advertise meetings and events at campus posting locations
- Take advantage of campus services
- Request funding from campus entities such as the Inter-Club Council

Active Clubs

An active club is defined in the I.C.C. Constitution as a club that has had one or more volunteers participating in twenty percent of all I.C.C. activities, functions, and committees of the previous semester.

Each club is required to:

- File a "Club Officers and Advisers Information Sheet" each semester
- Have a representative attend at least two I.C.C. meetings per semester.
- Abide by federal, state and local laws including the California Education Code, ECC Board Policies and the ECC Inter-Club Council Constitution.
