CAREERS FOR PROBLEM SOLVERS AND ANALYTICAL THINKERS

JOSHUA L. GRAY

TITLE: Principal Consultant
EMPLOYMENT: JLG Consulting Inc.

Joshua Gray is a doctoral candidate and management consultant with over a decade of industry experience working as a Six Sigma Black Belt for General Electric Corporation and as a Project Management Professional for Booz Allen Hamilton. Joshua's research foci are global health systems and human factors engineering; and his industry experience includes biotechnology, defense, energy, healthcare, insurance, materials, real estate and transportation. He recently conducted a global health systems project in Uganda and is currently pursuing a local health systems engagement in Crenshaw to address health disparities in under-served communities by improving operational efficiency and technology effectiveness.

CHRISTY HODSON

TITLE: Senior Human Resources Manager
CREDENTIALS: MBA, with an HR concentration. BA French, Cal State University L.A. PHR certification.
EMPLOYMENT: Los Angeles Conservation Corps.

Christy Hodson is a human resources professional with over 15 years’ experience. Her career spans multiple industries including professional services and non-profit. She is currently the Senior Human Resources Manager of the Los Angeles Conservation Corps, a non-profit providing academic and job training preparation for youth aged 18-24. Christy previously worked at KCET, the law firm Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld as well as with the law firm Paul Hastings LLP. Christy earned a Bachelor’s degree in French from CSULA, her MBA with an HR concentration, and her Professional in Human Resources (PHR) certification.

LAWRENCE J. IMEL, ESQ.

TITLE: Attorney, Shareholder, Lurie, Zepeda, Schmalz & Hogan
CREDENTIALS: JD Degree, Loyola Law School. BA Political Science, UCLA.
EMPLOYMENT: Lurie, Zepeda, Schmalz & Hogan

Lawrence J. Imel is a shareholder with the law firm of Lurie, Zepeda, Schmalz & Hogan in Beverly Hills. Mr. Imel is a business and probate litigation attorney admitted to practice law in all state and federal courts within the State of California. He received his J.D. in 2001 from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, where he was a staff writer for the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review, a Moot Court participant and two-time recipient of the Loyola Law School First Honors Award. Mr. Imel received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science from the University of California, Los Angeles.
CAREERS FOR PROBLEM SOLVERS AND ANALYTICAL THINKERS

KIMBERLY D.C. NARAIN

TITLE: MD, MPH, Ph.D. Student

CREDENTIALS: BS Afro-AM Studies, UCLA. BS Microbiology, UCLA. MD, Morehouse School of Medicine. MPH, Harvard School of Public Health. PhD Candidate Health Policy Management, UCLA.

EMPLOYMENT: UCLA, Department of General Internal Medicine & Health Services Research

Dr. Narain completed her residency in Internal Medicine at UCSF. As a California Endowment Scholar at Harvard, she evaluated the impact of place-based housing infrastructure interventions on adult health outcomes. After leaving Harvard, she completed a Robert Wood Johnson Clinical Scholar fellowship at UCLA. Upon completion of this fellowship Dr. Narain stayed on at UCLA as a STAR Fellow and a Ph.D. student in the Fielding School of Public Health. Her current research focuses on the health implications of Welfare Reform for single mothers. Dr. Narain is also an Attending Physician in the Iris Cantor Women’s Health Center at UCLA.