Become a Child Visitation Monitor Part 1 & 2 #210177

Are you looking to make extra money, and be of service to children in need? Consider being a part of this growing field, as a Professional Child Visitation Monitor. The role of the Professional Child Visitation Monitor is to be a neutral party who observes behavior. In this Standard 5.20, 14 hour training, you will be thoroughly trained to be an Independent Professional Monitor or register with a Monitoring Agency. Your training will include monitor procedures, visitation techniques, child abuse reporting, stages of child development, codes and standards, preparing reports and declarations, handling subpoenas, and marketing your business. The Training will consist of lecture, training videos, and role playing. The Court orders a Professional Monitor to accompany a minor child and their non-custodial parent, for various reasons. Your service will allow the custodial parent the reassurance that the child’s physical and emotional safety is being provided for. You will receive a Certificate of Education from the instructor.

Prerequisites: Must be 21 years of age, have post high school education or training per Assembly Bill 1674, and able to obtain a background check clearance and fingerprinting. $75 cash material fee for your course manual is payable to the instructor.

Instructor Shirley Douglass is a certified Supervised-Visitation Monitor who has been training professional monitors for more than eight years. Her experience includes nearly 30 years working for the Los Angeles County Court including 10 years in Family Law Courtroom.

This winter, see the world premiere of Mummies: New Secrets from the Tombs at the Natural History Museum. Get a rare, up-close look at a selection of more than 20 mummies, many of which have never been on public display, originating from ancient Egypt and Peru, and from many historic ages and backgrounds. This exhibition reveals these people’s burial secrets, new details about their lives, and the societies they lived in. Also on display will be richly decorated coffins, sarcophaguses, mumification tools, and mummys of birds, cats, and crocodiles. At interactive touchtables, you can “unwrap” layers of mummies, to see the precious objects the bodies were buried with, as well as vivid details about the individual children, teens, and adults who lived out their lives in ancient times. Using the modern technology of CT scanning, scientists have revealed a detailed look into long-vanished cultures of Peru and Egypt. The excursion will conclude with an on-your-own lunch across from USC Lab Gastropub, a slick, modern haunt with a science theme boasting gourmet comfort food, wine & beer, plus a patio. Price: $89 Depart: El Camino College lot J (in front of the Marsee Auditorium) @ 8:00AM, Return: 1:00PM

Enjoy a premier tour of the Huntington Library and Gardens before normal visiting hours. In a docent-led tour learn how Henry and Arabella Huntington turned their San Marino ranch into a world famous cultural landmark.
