CAMPUS ADVISORY

Monday, November 6, 2017

At approximately 6 a.m. this morning, a report was made to El Camino College Campus Police regarding stickers on campus that read "IT'S OKAY TO BE WHITE." Similar stickers have appeared on campuses nationwide. According to campus security footage, three male suspects entered ECC from Manhattan Beach Boulevard and posted the stickers at various locations on campus.

A misdemeanor malicious mischief report has been filed with the District Attorney's office, as this act of vandalism violates California Penal Code 594.

According to Administrative Procedure 5500 in the El Camino College Standards of Student Conduct, action may be taken against any person who engages in behavior defined as misconduct.

If you have any additional information about this incident, please call Campus Police, 310-660-3100.

For your safety:

- If you see something, say something. By working together we all contribute to the safety of our college campus.
- In an emergency, contact Campus Police by calling 911 from a landline phone; 310-660-3100 from a cell phone; or use a campus "Code Blue" emergency phone.
- Have keys in hand before walking to your car
- Always be aware of your surroundings – remember the use of listening devices and cell phones may significantly distract you
- Don't walk alone; use the buddy system
- Use cautious judgment: meet new people, including classmates or colleagues, in public places; do not get into a car or go to out-of-the-way places with someone you do not know
- Learn the location of "Code Blue" POLICE phones located throughout campus. These phones are directly linked to the college Police Department and are considered 911 priority lines. Students and staff are encouraged to utilize these phones for any emergency

If you see something, say something.

BE AWARE. BE SAFE.
