

Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences
Human Development Department Meeting
September 28, 2010

MINUTES

Present: K. Daniel-DiGregorio, M. Hernandez, A. LaCoe, V. Rayford, L. Raufman, J. Soden, D. Vaughn

Meeting began at: 1:00 p.m.

Enrollment Update/Spring Scheduling/Waitlists

Human Development classes exceeded the total normal class size for all sections. Offerings have been reduced due to budget cutbacks which will impact spring 2011 offerings. Waitlists will remain at ten.

Curriculum Review

HDEV 20 is undergoing course review this semester and should be submitted to the DCC soon but J. Soden has been having difficulty accessing CurricUNET.

SLOs

J. Soden discussed the SLO assessment timeline for Human Development for the next four years. She stated that HDEV 5, 8, and 10 are to be assessed this year. J. Soden also reported that the timeline will include having four SLOs for each department course by December 2010. Meetings will be scheduled in October for faculty working on HDEV 8, 10, and 12 in December and one in November for HDEV 5.

Plan Builder

The department received the 2010-2011 plan to review for development of the 2010-2011 plan.

Department Activities

L. Raufman announced the career fair planned for November 5th and invited the faculty to send their classes to this event.

FIPP Update

K. Daniel DiGregorio stated that she had finished the report from last spring and underscored the fact that one hundred percent of FIPP participants reported that the workshops helped improve their teaching. She also indicated that the Compton group of 15 participants is doing well.

M. Hernandez underscored the positive benefits of FIPP. She is partnering with one of the part-timers in the division who teaches Chicano history.

On Course

The conference will be held in Long Beach in April 2011. Several faculty are planning to attend.

SOCS Remodel Update

G. Miranda gave a brief update on the status of the remodel.

Meeting adjourned at: 2:00 p.m.
