BUSINESS & CAREERS

Truck Driver Class "A" Commercial License #210193

Help wanted! There is a critical workforce shortage of truck drivers at our heavily-congested ports. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics (May 2020), the Los Angeles/Long Beach/Anaheim and Riverside/San Bernardino/Ontario metropolitan areas rank amongst the highest in national employment demand for heavy and tractor-trailer truck drivers. With a median-average-hourly wage of $22.66 and even higher-average-hourly wages of $33.41, now is the time to start a lucrative and exciting career in transportation. In California, you may be hired to drive a commercial motor vehicle (CMV) carrying cargo that originates and terminates within state lines if you are at least 18 years old, and to drive for interstate commerce or transport hazardous materials/waste if you're 21 or older. In either scenario, you need to hold a Commercial Driver's License (CDL) in order to drive a CMV. In this comprehensive 10-week 170-hour course, you will obtain the knowledge and skills necessary to pass the California commercial truck class "A" driver's license written exam and driving test. To complete your license requirements you must take the written exam and the driving test at the California DMV.

Electric Vehicle Charging Station Design, Installation and Operation #3470002

One of most growing businesses in USA and worldwide are electrical vehicle and EV charging station installation. Millions of electric cars, SUVs and trucks will be on the road by next 10 years. To offset the carbon load on the environment, the California Government is hoping to make 100% vehicles operating by battery powered by year 2035. This will require millions of charging stations to be installed at the garages, parking lots, roadside electric poles, etc. Therefore, we need millions of EVCS installers and service providers all over US and worldwide. This course will offer A to Z of EVCS design, installation and operation, including troubleshooting the system. A chapter been added on "How to Design and Calculate Solar Photovoltaic and Batteries while in Outdoor Installation". Due to pandemic, classes will be online and total lecture time 12 hours.

Schedule

Class meets online on a weekday evening. Each student will also participate in a weekly 30 minute, one-on-one session with a mentor. Students start each academic week on Sunday and are required to watch all videos and start working on assignments/projects before their online class meeting. Course consists of 13-18 hours of weekly homework and content, including career service assignments utilizing LinkedIn.

Prerequisites

Students must be 18 or over and have a high school diploma or equivalent. Basic computer literacy and the ability to navigate one's own computer is strongly preferred. Students will complete an aptitude test prior to the first class session.

Technical Requirements

Students must have access to a computer with a minimum of 8GB RAM and i5 processor. Class utilizes both Zoom and Slack for meetings and communication. Although not required, students may find a second monitor extremely helpful.

Job Outlook

- Average wage in California is $64.60 hourly, $134,370 annually.
- Average wage nationally is $53.66 hourly, $111,620 annually.
- Jobs for software developers are expected to grow 25.6% by 2028.

The demand for health services such as Medical Billers is expected to continue to increase as the population ages.

In this comprehensive 132-hour job training program, you will gain the tools and knowledge necessary to become a medical billing professional. This series provides students with basic knowledge of the national diagnostic and procedural coding systems as well as introduces the process of filing claim forms. During the coming decades, demand for highly-skilled medical biller professionals will continue to exceed the supply. Complete all six learning modules to earn a certificate of completion from El Camino College Community Education—modules may be taken out of sequence. The course also prepares you to take the National HealthCareer Association (NHA) Certified Billing Coding Specialist (CBCS) exam and includes the NHA exam preparation materials, the CBCS exam itself, and the proctoring service fee. The Medical Terminology and Medical Insurance Handbook textbooks are included with the course and will be provided in PDF formats. Students are required to purchase the coding books. Students may further seek advanced professional coding certification with other national medical coding exam organizations such as the American Academy of Professional Coders (AAPC) or the Certified Professional Coder (CPC) exam. Practical coding experience of six months to two years is recommended prior to taking one of the advanced coding certification exams.

Foster and Kinship Care Trainers:

Jenna Provinse

Against her high school counselor's advice, former foster youth, Jenna Provinse applied to and was accepted to a CA State University. Jenna double majored in Social Work and Psychology and went on to earn a Master's Degree in Social Work from the University of Southern California. She is now accruing her hours towards her LCSW and plans on pursuing a Doctorate of Social Work. Jenna has both professional and direct service experience working in a variety of capacities with youth (individual and family therapy, behavioral interventions, group homes, ILP, and crossover youth). Coupled with her personal experience growing up in foster care and her experience as a resource relative caregiver to her niece, Jenna brings a broad spectrum of perspectives to her classes.

Theresa Reed is a former foster child. She is also a facilitator of learning and author who is passionate about educating those who engage with foster youth and others suffering from the effects of trauma to empathize in a way that facilitates healing. With an M.Ed in Adult Education, certifications in Mental Health First Aid and Attachment, Regulation and Competency, and 15+ years working with Foster/Kinship Care Education and foster youth support programs, she brings a wealth of knowledge.

Sandra Smith

With more than twenty-eight years of experience as a Foster Care resource parent, trainer, and educator, Sandra Smith brings a wealth of expertise, real-world understanding, and passion to her classes. As a Resource Parent of four boys, three of whom she adopted and one whom she co-raised with his biological mom, the heart of Sandra's love for FKCE and RFA training is rooted in her dedicated sense of advocacy for other Resource parents. She also draws upon her twelve years of experience as a middle school and high school instructor. She also earned an M.A. in Business and was one of the original PS-MAPP trainers.
