PERFORMANCES

DREAMSCAPE

FEB 26 @ 12 PM | Campus Theatre

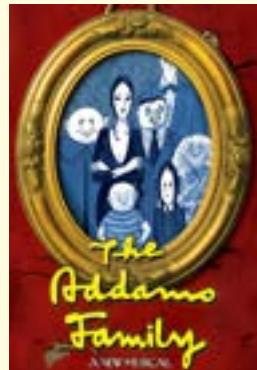

Writer/Director: Rickerby Hines

In 1998, Tyisha Miller, a 19-year-old African American woman, was shot to death by four police officers in Riverside, California, while unconscious in her car. Dreamscape reimagines her life and final moments through a fusion of poetry, dance, and live beatboxing, tracing the path and impact of the twelve bullets that ended her life, each one unlocking a personal memory. This lyrical, hip-hop theatre piece confronts police violence and racial injustice, while celebrating the spirit, dreams, and humanity of a young life cut short. Dreamscape challenges audiences to bear witness, remember, and reflect. Sponsored by the Associated Students Organization (ASO)

And if that wasn't upsetting enough, Wednesday confides in her father and begs him not to tell her mother.
