Class Size Determination and Process

1. Determination of class size by department.
 - A. If a new course
 - a. Include class size with new course proposal for information purposes.
 - B. If requesting a change in class size, provide justification, including:
 - Estimated changes to FTES/section and cost (add link and list fall 20)
 - Impact on student success, retention, and equity
 - Impact of Changes in SLOs, PLOs, and Discipline
 - Investigate size of comparable courses, both here and elsewhere
 - Evaluate approved criteria
 - Complete request form
2. Division Load Committee Approval
Provide explanation if denied
3. College Load Committee Approval
Provide explanation if denied
4. VPAA Approval

Adjusted Annual Timeline (2021/22):

- November 7, 2021: Division Load Committee submission deadline
- March 11, 2022: Division Load Committee complete review completion
- April 22, 2022: Campus Load Committee to complete review applications
- May 1, 2022: District and Federation negotiate any approved applications

Lab-Lecture Parity – Anthro 5

- (b) The LPC meets to discuss the proposal and proposal materials. Faculty who submitted the proposal may be present during the meeting to make arguments.
- (c) For each submitted course, each member of the LPC evaluates which criteria on the checklist below are satisfied by the course (see “Lab/Lecture Parity Committee Checklist”). The LPC then endeavors to determine by consensus which criteria are satisfied by the course. If consensus cannot be reached on a particular criterion, a majority vote shall prevail on that criterion. Tie votes will result in that particular criterion being denoted as “checked”/satisfied.
- (d) The LPC grants or denies the proposal. The LPC provides the applicant with written notification of the application outcome. If the proposal is rejected, the LPC shall provide a rationale. If the LPC identifies that two-thirds of the checklist criteria are met through process (c), the LPC shall not deny the proposal.
- (e) By December 1, proposals that are recommended by the LPC are forwarded to the Vice President of Academic Affairs for final review and approval. The Vice President of Academic Affairs will notify the Federation and the District of decisions by January 5.

SLOs

From Eduardo: I wanted to remind you that PLO submissions are due this coming Friday, March 18, and that if your department still has any outstanding Fall SLO assessment results that were due on Friday, March 4th, to please try and submit them right away. There are still a couple of departments that still have some work to do in that area.

Also, these are our Spring 2022 scheduled assessments, if you there any modifications that need to be made in your department please let me know. I know that some of you got that process started earlier and have already emailed me, thank you for doing that.

ECONOMICS

A degree in economics is designed to provide students with a foundation in macroeconomics and microeconomics theory. Economics majors will acquire knowledge of the principle economic models for understanding how the national economy functions, the fundamental laws of supply and demand, and international trade theory. Students will be able to apply methodologies to assess fiscal and monetary policy, price levels, and the allocation of goods and resources in competitive and monopolistic markets. Competencies will be assessed through regularly scheduled objective and essay examinations and problem solving assignments.
