- Matt Kline – Develop Model Courses Team
 - “I would like to collaborate with other instructors to develop model courses that all faculty can use. For instance, we would create a model ESL 53A course and post it on Canvas Commons. Then, any faculty member can download it and use it as she/he sees fit.”
 - If you would like to be on the team, contact Matt Kline at mcline@elcamino.edu. Team will start sometime next summer. Rebecca has volunteered to work with Matt on 53A.
