LET PROGRAM COSTS AND REQUIREMENTS

- AGE: You must be at least 18 years of age. It is recommended that you be at least 21 years of age as most agencies do not hire applicants younger than 21. For those younger than 21, you are strongly encouraged to take college coursework to earn a degree. In addition to a degree in Administration of Justice, El Camino College offers a variety of courses that enhance your likelihood of employment in law enforcement. Specialty courses include, Homeland Security, Emergency Management, Forensics, and Crime Analysis.
- EDUCATION: To become a peace officer in California you must have a high school diploma or GED. Possession of a two, four or advanced degree from an accredited or approved institution improves your prospects in this competitive career.
- LICENSE: You must have a valid California Driver's License.
- FINGERPRINT CHECK: Students must receive a California Department of Justice Firearms and Arrest Clearance (Penal Code 13511.5) – Live Scan
- MEDICAL EXAM: You must have a medical examination before being admitted into the training program. The results must be recorded on a medical form provided by El Camino College. Medical examination documents will be due the first week of the course.
- COURSE LENGTH: The POST Level III and POST Level II courses are offered in a modular format, each taking one semester to complete. Each module is a separate stand-alone course and will require independent registration. Students must successfully complete Level III in order to be eligible to attend Level II.
- FINANCIAL AID: The Financial Aid office is located on campus. The telephone number is (310) 660-3493
- VETERANS AID: The Veterans Service Center office is located on the main campus. The telephone number is (310) 660-3486.
- GRADUATION: Upon graduation from Module III, you will receive a certificate of completion that enables you to qualify for any police department in the State of California as a Level III Reserve Officer.

Upon graduation from Module II, you will receive a certificate of completion that enables you to qualify for any police department in the State of California as a Level II Reserve Officer.

The certificates of completion are valid for three years from the date of their issuance.

EXTENDED/MODULAR POLICE TRAINING

The extended modular training is designed to allow students who must maintain employment the opportunity to complete police training. The classes meet Monday and Wednesday, 6:30 PM to 9:00 PM and Saturdays from 7:30AM to 4:00PM. Due to training requirements, hours may be extended on some class meeting days and some Sundays will be scheduled.

The program is designed to meet the needs of those aspiring to be Level III, or Level II reserve police officers.

- To qualify as a Level III reserve police officer, one must complete Module III, which consists of a minimum of 144 hours of training.
- To qualify as a Level II reserve police officer, one must complete Module III AND Module II, which consists of an additional minimum of 189 hours of training.

The modules do not have to be completed at one time nor completed at the same training facility.

Prerequisites for entry into Module III: medical clearance, California DOJ clearance for firearms, and a valid driver's license.

Prerequisites for entry into Module II: successful completion of Module III (within 3 years), current in PC 832 Arrest and Firearms training requirements, passage of the POST-constructed Comprehensive Module III End-of-Course Proficiency Test within the preceding 12 months, medical clearance, California DOJ clearance for firearms, and valid driver's license.

DMV DRIVER RECORD

You must turn in a driver record on DMV letterhead on the first day of class showing that you have a valid driver's license. The driver record must be dated within three months of the start date of the class.

To request your driver record, use form INF 1125, which can be found online at:

<http://apps.dmv.ca.gov/forms/inf/inf1125.pdf>

You may type directly onto the form and print it out.

This form is used by individuals to request their own driving record. A $5.00 fee is required for each record requested.

Present the INF 1125 form in person to your local DMV office.
