

Journalism Department Meeting
Monday Sept. 14, 2020

- Adobe Licenses
 - Licenses will be provided soon
 - There's been a delay, but ITS is following up
- Conference Attendance
 - ACP/CMA conference coming up soon (virtual)
 - Taking as many students as possible
- LA Times/Scripps Howard Foundation grant/HS Insider
 - Working on a $30,000 grant proposal
- FWS student worker
 - Had to look elsewhere for work because she couldn't wait for processing
- Equipment
 - Need for MacBooks
 - They're dying and/or not prepared for use
 - $20K in Strong Workforce money earmarked for "equipment upgrades"
 - Stefanie will follow up with Roderick on status of laptops
 - Deb will circle back with Virginia and see about the $20K
- Jack
 - Without him here, a lot of administrative tasks are not getting done
 - The area of greatest impact is in award and advertising
- J12 online/COR
 - Courses are being reviewed according to the schedule
 - Online courses should align with regular COR
- Guest speakers, homework, meetings shared among classes to recreate the newsroom experience
- Student Media Digital Archive
 - Renamed the ECC Digital Archive
 - Deb will talk to Crystle about fixing the Student Media Digital Database
 - Was renamed, Journalism Department, Library, and funding info removed
- Enrollment/marketing campaign/counselors
 - Connect, Thrive, and Grow is an all-counselor meeting Sabra thinks might be good for K and S to address concerns
 - Journalism program surpasses the college in success numbers for underrepresented populations
- SLO/PLO
 - Andrew Gard came in and said we need to assess this semester J8, J12, and J6
 - Due third week of spring 2021
 - PLO 4 due the fifth week of spring 2021
 - Kate will do the J6 if Chris can't