

ABOUT

The Warrior-Toro Computer Science Pathway is a cohort program that provides a structured and supported path for students to complete a bachelor's degree in computer science in four years. Offered in partnership with El Camino College and California State University, Dominguez Hills (CSUDH), the rigorous program requires students to commit to year-round participation and maintain a 3.0 GPA.

To participate, students must:

- Complete the admission and enrollment process for El Camino College
- Complete and submit the CS cohort application
- Meet with a CS cohort advisor for review and approval of registration form
