El Camino College Dance Department to Present “Lo Tech, No Tech” Concerts
Performances will feature all levels of theatrical, world and social dance styles

The El Camino College Dance Department will present “Lo Tech, No Tech” dance concerts featuring all levels of theatrical, world and social dance styles hosted by ECC Professor Daniel Berney at 7 p.m. May 9 and 10 in Marsee Auditorium.

The Lo-Tech, No-Tech concerts are the final showings from all dance classes offered at El Camino College in the spring semester. Students from the following dance classes will be featured: beginning dance, modern dance, ballroom dance, ballet, Latin social dance, music for dance, world dance, improvisation, jazz, hip hop, and the El Camino College Salseros Club. Choreography for the show is created by instructors; students in each class perform the final dances.

The El Camino College Dance Department offers a comprehensive foundation in the theory, history, technique, and art of dance to students seeking a degree, preparing to transfer to four-year degree programs, or for dance training. Faculty members are active professionals in Southern California, creating an important link for students to the wider community.

ECC students have access to three state-of-the-art dance studios complete with Marley flooring and fixed-wall ballet barres. Additional free-standing ballet barres, Pilates reformers and dance conditioning equipment supplement the dance facilities, allowing for a full complement of studio dance class offerings.

Tickets for the “Lo Tech, No Tech,” dance concerts are $10 each and may be purchased online www.centerforthearts.org , by phone at 310-329-5345 or toll-free at 800-832-ARTS. The Ticket Office is open Monday through Friday 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Campus parking is $3. The El Camino College Marsee Auditorium is located at 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, Torrance.
