El Camino College Symphony Orchestra to Present Spring Show Concert to include classical selections from Mozart, Handel, Wagner and more

The El Camino College Symphony Orchestra will hold its year-end performance at 8 p.m. June 3 in Marsee Auditorium.

Director Dane Teter will lead the orchestra in performances of works from Mozart, Handel, Wagner and other composers. Student soloists from the El Camino College Applied Music Program will include Avery Jett on French horn, baritone Berkley Kielhack, Jasmine Leong on piano, and organist Sarah Yun.

The El Camino College Symphony Orchestra is a college and community orchestra comprised of musicians from ECC – music majors and non-music majors – and community members covering a myriad of occupations and ages. The orchestra performs traditional and contemporary music on campus and at a variety of locations and functions throughout the community.

Tickets are $10 and may be purchased online at centerforthearts.org, or by phone at 1-800-832-ARTS. The Ticket Office is open Monday through Friday 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Campus parking is $3. Marsee Auditorium is located at 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, Torrance.
