

Save the Date

Fall Professional Development Day

Thursday, August 25, 2016

The Fall Professional Development Day is an annual event that gives both faculty and staff members a chance to learn more about El Camino College. Various general sessions and workshops will bring new insight and information to the members of the campus community.

More Details to Come!