

Short Range – Team Member Two-Way radio

Motorola FV300 Two-Way radio

Display Screen

Call Tone Button

Push to Talk (PTT)

Push to transmit, release to listen In Menu mode, press to confirm selection

Power / Menu Button

Long press turns the radio on / off
Short press enters
Menu Mode

Antenna

Plus (+) Button

Increases Volume (volume level flashes and VOL displays) In Menu mode, enables you to change channel up or turn features on and off

Decreases Volume (volume level and VOL displays) In Menu mode, enables you to change channel down or turn features on and off

Recharging Jack

For rechargeable batteries only...

Audio Accessory Jack

Team Radios are planned for short range use to speak with team members. These radio channels are not usually monitored by Campus Police or the Emergency Operations Center. Building Captains have Campus Emergency Radios to contact the Emergency Operations Center.

Radio Controls

- 1. Turn Power on or off Long Press the Menu button
- 2. Adjust Volume Use Plus and Minus buttons to increase and decrease volume Display flashes and VOL displays on screen.
- 3. Change Channels Short Press the Menu button once; use Plus and Minus buttons to find desired team channel Confirm channel by pressing the Push to Talk button once.
- 4. Battery Charge Indicator Battery Power Level is displayed in upper left corner of the Display Screen.
- 5. Transmit Press the Push to Talk (PTT) button; TX is shown on the Display next to the channel number; release the PTT button to listen.
- 6. Call Tone Button Pressing this button transmits a short tone while unit transmits. Use only once as an alert tone No voice is transmitted.
- 7. Radio Batteries Unit uses three AAA Alkaline batteries.

Questions or Help:
El Camino College
Emergency Operations Center (EOC)
Donald Treat – Technical Support
dtreat@elcamino.edu ext 3322