Welcome to El Camino College!

You don't have to be an ECC student to enjoy our beautiful campus. Visit us online through our Web site, or on campus any time -- we are YOUR community college.

Founded in 1947, El Camino College is situated on a beautiful and spacious 126-acre campus near Torrance, California. The college enrolls more than 25,000 students each semester and boasts a curriculum of over 850 highly regarded academic and career programs taught by exceptional faculty.

Where are we located?

El Camino College is easily accessible from the 405 and 91 freeways, at the corner of Manhattan Beach and Crenshaw boulevards in Torrance.

Meet with a counselor

If you would like to meet with a counselor during your visit, please call 310-660-3442. Our counseling team is here to help you reach your educational and career goals.

El Camino College – a South Bay tradition

Since the opening of El Camino College 60 years ago, we have been dedicated to serve our community's educational and cultural needs. El Camino College is well-known for academic excellence, a consistently high transfer rate to four-year colleges and universities, and exceptional career training programs.

El Camino College offers many outstanding features, including:

- Transfer agreements with many four-year universities
- Flexible scheduling
- Ranked among the largest single-campus, two-year colleges in the nation
- Excellent career training programs
- Outstanding community education programs
- Only $20 per unit for California residents

Visit us!

Come to El Camino College and take a course, watch an athletic match, stroll the grounds – we are here for you. In addition to taking classes, did you know you can also:

- See a show at the Marsee Auditorium, the Campus Theater, or the Robert Haag Recital Hall. The El Camino College Center for the Arts is one of the top presenting houses in Southern California, bringing the best in music, theater and dance to the campus.
- Gaze at the “night sky” in the campus Planetarium. The South Bay Astronomical Society meets in the planetarium on the first Friday of each month. Admission is free. Students as well as the public are welcome.

- Enjoy fine art. The El Camino College Art Gallery features six exhibitions each year, including works by students, faculty and local artists. Both galleries are free and open to the public.
- Check out our Anthropology Museum. Located on the third floor of the Arts & Behavioral Sciences building, the museum features annual shows with a theme and regional focus. Gallery exhibits are designed and installed by Museum Studies students enrolled in through the Anthropology Department.
- Tour a Career Training class. Stop by and ask one of our instructors for a tour of our allied health careers programs, robotics program, the auto shop, machine shop, welding shop, wood shop, construction shop – the list goes on.
- Stop in the Schauerman Library. Many library resources are open to the public, including reference materials, newspapers and magazines. It is also a comfortable, quiet place to just relax and read.

President's Message

For nearly six decades, El Camino College has been proud to serve our community's educational and cultural needs through outstanding course offerings, diverse entertainment venues, and exceptional athletic and fitness opportunities.

So now, as we enter our 60th year, the campus itself is taking on a "fresh" new look, with safety and technology upgrades continuing throughout the campus. As we move forward with our facilities plan, we know that our new construction is all thanks to you, our supporters who helped pass our first-ever bond measure four years ago.

We are also growing academically – El Camino College consistently ranks tops in transfers to University of California and California State campuses, and our enrollment continues to rise.

Of course, our students are our main source of pride here at El Camino College. The determination, drive, and discipline they demonstrate on a daily basis as they pursue their academic and career goals is truly inspiring.

Please feel free to visit our campus – we are your community college. Take some time to see the improvements in the making and see how El Camino College is changing for the better.

2007 SEASON PREVIEW

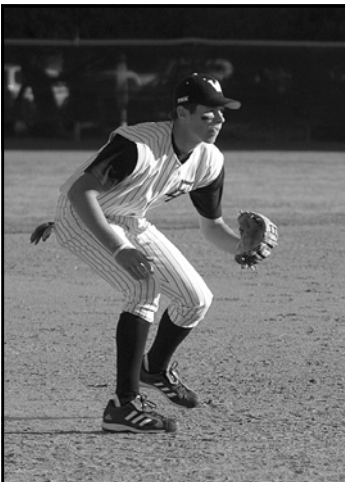

A New Era

The El Camino College baseball team looks forward to the 2007 baseball season with an experienced team ready to contend for a South Coast Conference championship. Under the direction of first year coach Nate Fernley, the Warriors look to improve on last year's 22-21 record. This season returns six starters from the last two years, giving the Warriors a talented offensive unit. Combining that with a young and growing pitching staff, the team has high expectations for the upcoming year. The Warriors play a 44-game schedule including 20 home dates at Warrior Field. The Warriors are assisted by coaches Bob Fernley, Michael Acosta and baseball operations specialist Bill Hood.

The Positions

Infield

Dane Braunecker, A.J. Rodriguez and Kyle Leamy come into the season as experienced sophomores, counted on to lead the Warriors throughout the year. Rodriguez was an All-Conference DH last season hitting .336. Braunecker hit over .300 his freshman year before redshirting last season and Leamy will make the move to 1st base after having an impressive summer and fall. Newcomers Robbie Estrada and Ryan Lopez look to anchor the defense up the middle. Estrada, a

Kyle Leamy, Sophomore

19th round draft choice of the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in 2006, will be counted on to play solid defense and provide offense in the middle of the order. Lopez, an All-CIF performer, provides the team with a steady glove and handles the bat well. Ramon Marquez provides offensive punch from the left side and will be an offensive factor. Rene Chavez, Nick Jones and Alan Gatz provide depth and experience that will be depended on throughout the season.

Outfield

Ross Babineaux and Brian Ramirez bring the offense pop and speed to the heart of the Warrior lineup. Babineaux hit .318 last year after making the conversion from pitcher to outfielder. Ramirez is a versatile player that will not only be counted on in the outfield, but will see time in the infield as well. Ramirez leads all returning players with a .344 average in 2006 and will be looked upon to be a catalyst for the offense. Newcomer Matt Mercier brings speed and the ability to get on base, and sophomore Billy Applegate brings great defensive play and a good arm to a strong outfield core. Freshman Billy Madden provides a big stick that brings power to the Warriors offense, and Jose Tostado provides depth as well.

Ross Babineaux, Sophomore

Catchers

Derrek Duarte will be counted on to do most of the catching this upcoming season. Duarte hit .336 last season for the Warriors and will be depended upon to handle the pitching staff in his first full season behind the plate. Freshman Rey Lopez has made great strides offensively this fall and looks to provide depth and contribute in many situations. Nick Jones is a jack of all trades who will not only provide stability to the infield but also to the catching position.

Starting Pitching

The Warriors look to rely heavily on experienced sophomores to fill in the starting rotation for the 2007 season. All-Conference third-year sophomore Jeff McKinley returns to the mound after going 5-1 with a 2.41 ERA in 2005. McKinley, who sat out last season with recurring back problems, will be looked upon to carry a good portion of the work load. Sophomore Garrett Ozar comes to the Warriors after two years at the University of San Francisco. Ozar provides experience, leadership and the ability to throw all pitches for strikes, and will be part of a 1-2 punch that gives the Warriors high expectations. Alan Gatz made the transition from infielder to full-time pitcher this fall. Gatz has made great strides on the mound and will be a key factor for the team's success. The fourth spot in the rotation could be filled by freshman Richard Riley or sophomore Shawn Fendley. Riley has great stuff, with a variety of pitches, and sophomore lefthander Shawn Fendley provides experience and emotion.

staff. Redshirt freshman Anthony Mccaw will be called upon to not only provide innings, but be a situational hitter. Gilbert Camacho could be a factor after completing a successful season with the soccer team.

Brian Ramirez, Sophomore

A.J. Rodriguez, Sophomore

Relief Pitching

The Bullpen for the Warriors has a number of pitchers who will compete for innings. Freshman newcomers Taylor Adlam and Percy Perez look to be strong contributors toward the end of games. Eric Morales, Flavio Ramos and Travis Goins will provide much-needed depth and all have potential of making impacts this season. Matt Ronan brings a left-handed arm and South Coast Conference experience to a young pitching

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Rory Natividad begins his first year as the Athletic Director, following the retirement of Dave Shannon. Dave had served as the Athletic Director for 17 years, after 13 years of running a very successful Cross-Country and Track Program.

Rory was the Senior Athletic Trainer for the college for five years prior to serving as the acting Athletic Director. Natividad is now in charge of coordinating 21 intercollegiate athletic programs and some 450 student-athletes. Rory brings vision and an excellent understanding of athletics as a whole to the Warrior family.

A graduate of California State University, Dominguez Hills, Rory later received his Master of Education from Azusa Pacific University. He has coordinated two successful community college athletic medicine programs, a first aid and CPR program, and continues to be a lecturer at Loyola Marymount University. Rory is a current member of the CCCAA Managing Board and the President of the California Community College Athletic Trainers Association.

A North High School alumnus, Rory lives in the South Bay with his wife Gina and daughter Malia Rose.

Season welcome from the Athletic Director

As the Athletic Director for El Camino College, it is my privilege to welcome parents, student-athletes and supporters of Warrior athletics to the 2007 season. This year's media guide will highlight the history of the Warriors, as well as provide you with a preview of the year to come.

As in the past history of baseball at El Camino College, we continue to strive toward excellence in the classroom and on the field. We pride ourselves on preparing the student athlete for life, career and/or transfer to the four-year institution through our educational plan. Our athletic programs offer quality comprehensive educational opportunities to these gifted individuals who excel in academics and athletics during their time at El Camino College.

Once again, we enter this 2007 season with high expectations and a renewed commitment to our community and our student-athletes. I am sure we will see great things from this year's squad of Warriors. Thank you for your support and I look forward to seeing you at the field.

HEAD COACH

Nate Fernley

Head Coach
1st Season
BYU

#29

El Camino College head baseball coach Nate Fernley enters his first year at the helm of the Warriors. Coach

Fernley comes to El Camino College after two years as recruiting coordinator and pitching coach at Long Beach City College. Fernley was an integral part of the Vikings 2006 State Championship team. Under Fernley's direction the pitching staff ranked first in the South Coast Conference both years and fourth and first in the state of California respectively.

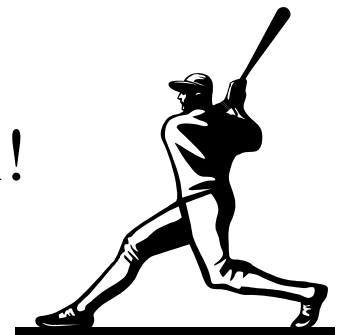

As a player Fernley played two years at Long Beach City College before transferring to BYU. At BYU, Fernley was named a consensus All-

American and led the NCAA in wins at 16. He later signed with the Cleveland Indians organization and played professional baseball for three years in the Indians and Chicago Cubs minor league systems. He graduated from BYU with a degree in Spanish and later from the United States Sports Academy with a master's degree in sports science. Coach Fernley is married to wife Dara, and has two children Hallee and Jake.

How to Keep Score

Warriors' fans can enjoy baseball more this season by keeping score of the game.

The best part about keeping score is that it's easy. All you need is a basic knowledge of baseball's rules. Experts use a simple code, which is based on numbering players by their positions.

Number Players as Follows

- | | |
|-------------------|----------------------|
| 1. Pitcher | 6. Shortstop |
| 2. Catcher | 7. Left Fielder |

Every time a batter goes to the plate, use the number to indicate how he was retired or how he reached base.

Fielding plays retiring batters or runners also call for use of the numbers. For instance, the batter who grounds out to shortstop is retired 6-3 in your scoring. If he flies to the right fielder, merely use the figure 9. If it is foul: 9F.

In the example to the right, the batter reached first on an error by the second baseman, stole second, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on a passed ball.

It is convenient to encircle all runs as shown so that scoring plays may be seen at a glance.

WARRIOR FIELD

Warrior Field at El Camino College is considered one of the finest baseball facilities in the state. Five miles from the Pacific Ocean, fans can watch an afternoon game in the Southern California sunshine.

It features a Bermuda grass infield, sunk in dugouts, two batting tunnels, state-of-the-art sound system, scoreboard, and snack bar.

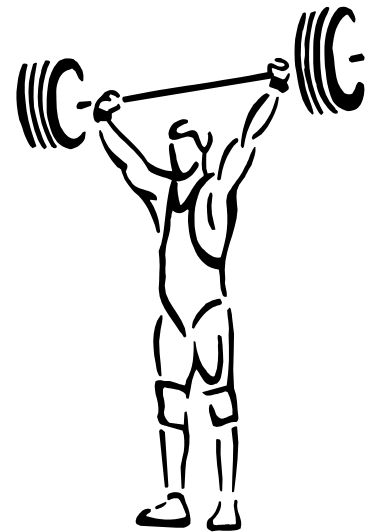

WEIGHT TRAINING FACILITIES

El Camino College has three outstanding training facilities. A fully equipped weight room, a machine room with upper and lower body equipment, and an excellent fitness center. The development of an athlete's fitness level must entail a comprehensive plan that enhances all physical components of competition. These facilities reflect the total fitness philosophy of the Warrior baseball program.

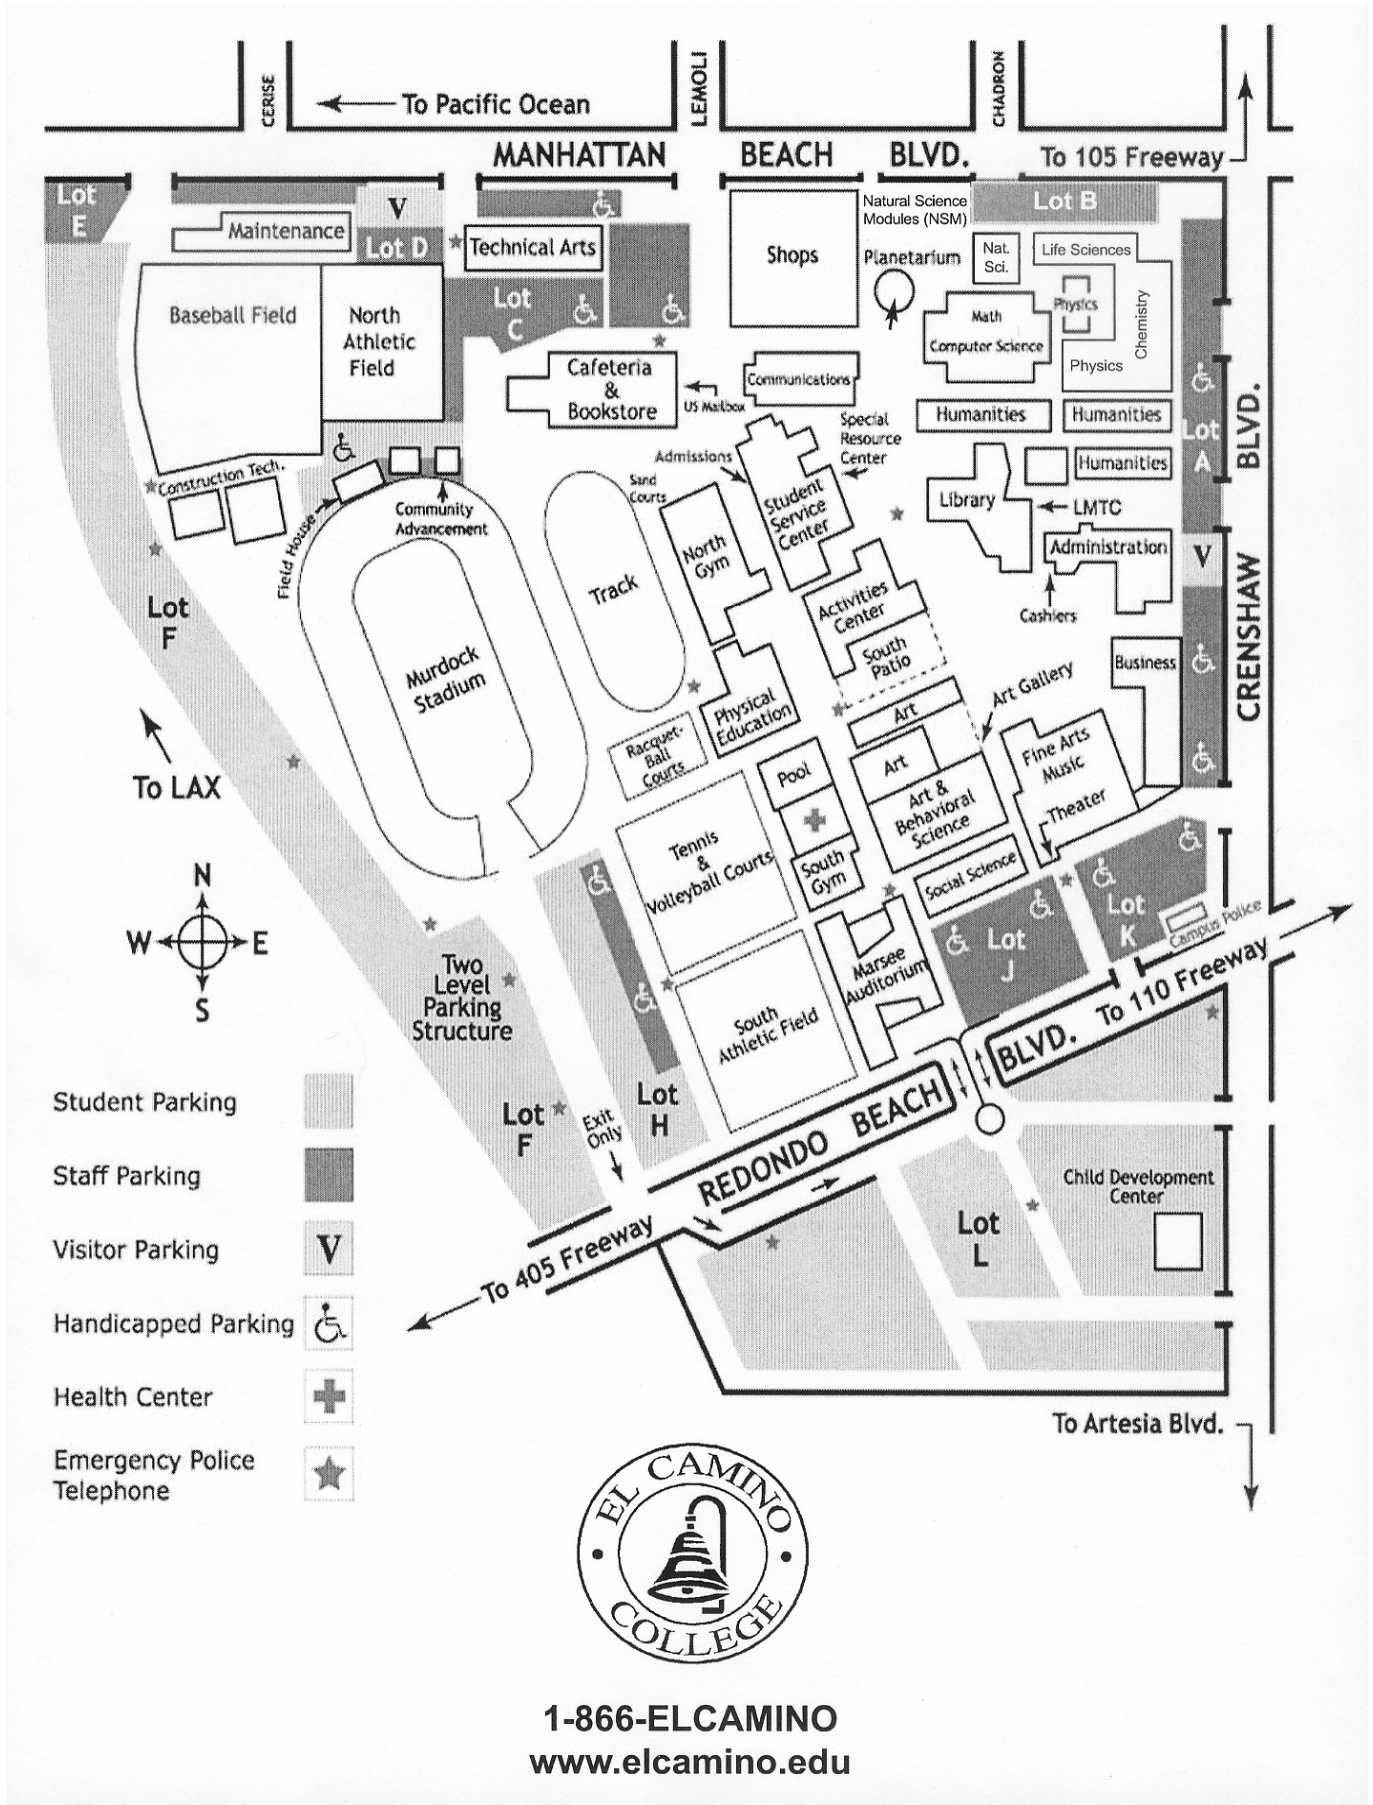

ilities in the area. El Camino College baseball players train hard and often.

Our main goals are for each player to stay healthy and improve performance. The importance of staying injury-free is paramount in sport development and improvement. The El Camino College Weight Training Facilities give each player the ability to train and enhance performance capabilities in the best fa-
