CAST

Lauren Conway is an American Sign Language major, and this production is her first acting role, although she is no stranger to performing on stage. Lauren grew up singing in the choir and has performed on stage a number of times. She just started acting classes last semester and is excited to gain more experience acting on stage. It has always been her dream to perform in a musical someday. Lauren would like to thank her husband, family and friends for their neverending support, encouragement and reminders that it's never too late to dream a new dream.

Jamie Forney is a film major at ECC, and has been acting since 2018. She first began performing in Phoenix, AZ at Glendale Community College as Mrs. Boyle in The Mousetrap, and is now a voice actor in the scripted comedy podcast Heinous Investigations as Rachel. An Evening of Improv is her first improvisational performance.

Jesus Felix is an Audio Engineering major, and this is his first ever production as an actor. While having no prior experience in acting, he is very comfortable with being on the stage and delivering his best. My sources of inspiration come from Curb Your Enthusiasm and Whose Line Is It Anyway. I'd like to thank my family and my fellow peers in this production, providing nothing but support.

Anquishia Heming has been acting since she was a small child in local church plays and landed her first lead role in Fifth Grade as the Tour guide in Its Small World. 20 years of experience as a social media personality, Miss Kiwi, hosting art shows at Blue Cafe, and promoting metal bands in Hollywood and local backyard shows. I'm returning to El Camino stage after my role in Dinner with the Macguffins as Helen Macguffin. Healing the world one belly laugh after another. Thanks to my Father and fun loving family and friends for the inspiration.

Marcella "Mak" Knox is an LA transplant from the great state of Hawaii. She has starred in several theatrical productions, including School House Rock, Oliver!, The Children's Hour, Runaways, and Over The Tavern. Film roles include Mackenna in Paradise Dreams. She has studied acting at the American Academy of Film & Television, Mid Pacific School of the Arts, & El Camino College. She would like to thank her dogs, Mijo & Gypsy, for their forever unconditional love. "I refuse to accept a life I do not deserve!" - Maxine Minx

Dennis McCowen Jr. is a Theater Major student, making his debut, and he is no stranger to being on stage. He's been performing since middle school and has participated in talent shows since he was 12 years old. Dennis was the HMS Houseband keyboardist from 2012 to 2016. He's a laid-back guy with a Deadpool mentality. He is named "The classroom's hype-man" and loves to have fun and make friends. He dreams about one day being a stand up comedian after college. Dennis thanks his family and friends for their support. To my friends, Laughter All night long! forever.

Ace Montes-Navarro is a Theatre Arts Major with an emphasis in Musical Theater and Queer Studies. They've been on and off stage before, have done both acting and singing, and generally enjoy fine arts and performance. Usually, you can find them in El Camino's many support centers, or yapping about queer poetry and literature in their poor professor's office hours. They would like to thank their mother for making really good food, and their little brother for being a good brother, I guess.

Kemonté Nelson is a Theatre and Psychology major. This is his second show at El Camino, but this his first time doing improv on stage. He is excited and happy to work with the cast and crew. He'd like to thank my friends and family for their support. Also thanks to his cast mates, stage manager/assistant stage managers, and director for dealing with my "creativity".

Caleb Turner is majoring in psychology. This is his 2nd show at El Camino. He also played the role of Grandpa in An Evening of One Acts 2025. He is very excited about performing in this show and very thankful for all the support from his family, friends, and castmates.

Wylder Wollman is Undecided on his major at El Camino, but he is happy to be here. He has starred in a few short films and done ComedySportz 2023-2024 and broadcast journalism from 2022-2024. It is his first time gracing the stage at El Camino, and he is so excited. He would like to thank his family and friends for their support.

PRODUCTION TEAM

Director: Frank Caeti is excited to work with this talented cast and crew. He is a professor at El Camino College and CalArts. TV Credits include: MADtv, Modern Family, and Jimmy Kimmel Live. Theatre credits include: Off-Broadway, The Kennedy Center (Washington DC), Goodman Theatre (Chicago), La Jolla Playhouse, Wyly Theatre (Dallas), Starlight Theater (Kansas City), The Second City (Chicago), and Upright Citizens Brigade (Los Angeles). He has an MFA from Emerson College. www.frankcaeti.com

Technical Director: Kira Sherman - After graduating from California State University Fullerton with a bachelor's degree in theatrical design and production, Kira jumped into the professional world as a stage manager, tour manager, and occasional light designer, and is so pleased to be back for another show as technical director. Thank you all for coming and supporting your local theater!

Production Stage Manager: Kiera Little is a Theatre Arts major transferring to CSU Fullerton next fall and this production is her first as a Production Stage Manager. She has worked on several past productions at ECC, both performing and working backstage. Previous theatre credits include: Pride and Prejudice (Caroline Bingley), Puffs (Megan Jones), Les Misérables (Fantine), and Fly Rail Operator for Rent. Kiera would like to thank her family and friends for their encouragement and love this past year. Kisses!

Assistant Stage Manager: Andrés Diaz is a Film Major here at El Camino, but has involved himself with theatre a lot since starting college. As an aspiring film/tv director, he has acted in a few shows such as The Miracle Worker (Percy), Lost Girl (Curly), and The Laramie Project (Moisés Kaufman and others), in order to gain a better understanding of how to work with actors. Outside of acting, he has been a Sound Board Operator for Rent, a Light Board Operator for Puffs, and a Director for Aliens vs. Cheerleaders in the 2025 Evening of One Acts. Andrés wants to thank the cast and crew for their work on the show, along with his family, friends, and all audience members for their support. Enjoy!

Assistant Stage Manager: Joy (Qing) Peng is a Theatre Arts major. After exploring acting workshops and performances in Hong Kong, she has been active at ECC both behind the scenes on deck crew for One Act 2025 and onstage in The Laramie Project. She is so excited to challenge herself in a new role as an Assistant Stage Manager and is grateful for the chance to grow with this production. Joy wants to thank the directors, the cast, and the entire crew for their hard work, and the audience for supporting live theatre!

Set Design and Co-Projections Design: Brent Jasso is so happy to have the opportunity to work with Frank Caeti, Kiera Little, Joy Peng and Andrés Diaz on “The Unknown Road”. He is excited to show off his work and laugh with these hilarious and talented actors! Brent has been in the theater community for many years and has the opportunity to do a variety of jobs. They have been the prop master for Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, lighting designer for You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown, Audio 2 in many shows, and a part of the costume crew for a majority of their time here at El Camino. When he’s not backstage, Brent has had the pleasure of performing on stage! His favorite roles being: Mrs. Bennet (Pride & Prejudice), Drowsy Chaperone & Aldolpho (The Drowsy Chaperone), Smee (Peter Pan), Mr. Mushnik (Little Shop of Horrors), Fester Addams (Addams Family). Remember to have courage, be kind, and enjoy the show!
