CANDIDATES FOR SENATORS

CANDIDATE FOR:

SENATOR OF BUSINESS

Jordan Stemberga

Hello, my name is Jordan Stemberga, and I am proud to serve as a Division Council Member of Business in ASO. As an active member of the division and a dedicated Business major, I have the experience that is essential for understanding the needs and challenges our students face. With my leadership, passion, and commitment to advocating for our division, I am ready to take the next step as your Business Division Senator. So let's get down to business—vote Jordan Stemberga for Senator of business!

CANDIDATE FOR:

Davon Dorsey Jr

I'm Davon Dorsey Jr, the man, the myth, and soon... your Senator of Business. I'm running because we deserve more, more opportunities, more connections, and more respect for our division. I know what it's like to want those things and feel like no one's listening, and I'm not here to make empty promises. I'm here to deliver. Let's keep it a buck, business students deserve more than just overpriced textbooks. If you're ready for real change, let's make it happen together.

CANDIDATE FOR:

SENATOR OF FINE ARTS

Angel Stormborn

Hello, my name is, Angel Stormborn and I'm a Gender Studies major. I'm running for Senator of Fine Arts. I will deliver and represent YOUR artistic needs. Since I've started my journey on this campus I have always been advocating for art justice. I'm an activist and I dedicate my entire life to this work. I will work with the Director of Gallery and Museum Programming, Michael L. Miller, to create free artistic opportunities for students. By creating student-led murals on campus and creating exhibitions where students can submit their work, all forms of art will be accepted. I will continue to advocate and get justice with or without this position. Give me an official role so I can put these systems in place. If you ever see me on campus, say hi. Thank you!

CANDIDATE FOR:

Melissa Cruz

My main interests as senator of fine arts are voicing student and department issues with the new block schedule with relevant staff, pushing for functional classrooms and equipment, and building a system that allows the departments within fine arts to survive and ultimately thrive. As a leader, I'm very hands-on. Leading student groups and organizations over the years like being the former president and current instructor for the salsa club, I have learned and continue to learn how to best meet the needs of the groups that I serve. Right now, I've been interviewing fine arts students one-on-one about their feelings regarding the block schedule and their respective departments. I've spoken with faculty as well to get a better sense of what's going on and what has and hasn't been working for them. My plan is to gather as much information as possible and present it to the deans and relevant staff to get some important conversations going and hopefully set some things in motion. I'm the strongest candidate because I've already gotten started on some of the work. You don't have to wonder whether I'm going to set out to do the things that I am promising. I'm already doing them and will continue to do so regardless of whether I get this position or not. Being a senator would help provide that extra support and resources to expedite this process and see some change in the sooner rather than later future.

CANDIDATE FOR:

SENATOR OF BEHAVIORAL & SOCIAL SCIENCES

Camila Sanchez Garcia

Hello my name is Camila Sanchez Garcia and this is my second year at El Camino. My major is Elementary Education, my goal is to transfer, and after I want to become an elementary school teacher in the future. Some leadership experience that could help was in high school, I was co editor of the yearbook overseeing the different people in our group and making sure they were on task. I also train people at work so I am able to help and accommodate to different people. Through the interest and passion I have as an Elementary Education major I hope to advocate for all of those with that major along with other majors too. I would try to work for more opportunities for students to learn and educate themselves on career opportunities. As well as including workshops or experiences involving their majors or future careers. I want to become more involved with school and be able to help students be heard. Students should be represented and heard I want to be able to use my voice in order to get the help we need. I am open to hearing everyones voices, opinions, concerns, and implementing them in the best way possible. I chose this position because I want to become a teacher. I am passionate about teaching and helping young minds through education. I am currently a Sunday School teacher at my local church which is helping me get experience I need for the future. I want my time here at El Camino to not only be educational and memorable but also impactful for other students. Thank you and I hope to be one of your senators of behavioral and social sciences.

CANDIDATE FOR:

Nicolás Tomsio

I am a first year student, came here as an 2024 high school graduate and looking to transfer out to Cal State Dominguez. I am finishing up my second semester here, with this semester being my first semester in ASO. I am proudly Mexican (Chicano)-Chinese, and want to connect more deeply with my cultures and heritages. Currently I am (an appointed) Division Council Member of the Behavior and Social Sciences Building, and with your support looking to be elected as a senator of my division. In ASO committees, I am the Chair of the Maintenance Subcommittee of the Initiatives Committee and have couple memberships in other committees. My focus is on-campus is student organizing to not only better this campus (to make it student oriented), but to foster a community here to build a working class world (as it is possible). I am active on this campus, being a full time student, in my classes (including the journalism program) and in clubs & organizations like a cofounder/the Inter-Club Council Rep. of the Anti-War Club & a member of the Men of Color Action Network. Outside of campus, I work at a local Ralphs in Torrance and actively apart of my local labor union (UFCW 770) as a shop steward for my store. I hope, in the future, to become more active in my outside communities. I hope to continue working and advocating for students, in ASO!

CANDIDATE FOR:

SENATOR OF HEALTH SCIENCES & ATHLETICS

Leanne Evans

Hey Warriors! My name is Leanne Evans, and I am excited to run for Senator of Health Sciences and Athletics. As an Asian American first-year double majoring in Nursing and Psychology, I am passionate about advocating for students and ensuring our voices are heard. Health Sciences and Athletics are vital to our education and well-being. Whether in healthcare or sports, we all deserve strong academic support, improved facilities, and better mental health resources. As your Senator, I will work to enhance these areas, ensuring every student has the tools to succeed. I believe change starts with listening. I will be an accessible advocate, working with students and administration to turn concerns into action. Together, we can build a healthier, more inclusive campus where every student thrives. Vote for me, Leanne Evans, I'm excited to make a change together! :)

CANDIDATE FOR:

Melina Padilla

My name is Melina, and I am running for Senator of Health Sciences and Athletics because I am deeply passionate about creating a more inclusive and supportive environment for all students, especially first-generation and minorities like myself. As someone who has navigated these challenges firsthand, I understand the obstacles we face, both in accessing resources and understanding opportunities in health and wellness. If elected, I will focus on making health resources more accessible, raising awareness about wellness opportunities, and ensuring that students from all backgrounds are not left behind. I want to provide a platform where everyone can not only thrive academically, but physically and mentally. Thank you for your support!!

CANDIDATE FOR:

SENATOR OF HUMANITIES

Koryn Dixon

Hello Everyone, My name is Koryn Dixon and I plan to rerun for ASO Senator of Humanities for 2025-26. I am a political science major and ever since I was thirteen years old social justice has been a driving factor in my life because of its end goal - addressing societal conundrums that aim to dismantle the rights of individuals and groups. I never believed in rights being “given” nor earned because it implies that being a natural-born citizen is a privilege rather than inherent and that idea was the root of my pursuit in creating a platform in my freshman year of high school that gives true American history that many groups had suffered simply to be perceived as equal. This was the basis for my Honors U.S. History project on social justice movements, documentaries I’ve produced, and a research project on inequity in underrepresented communities. In my junior year at high school, I was one of the four students selected to participate in the Charles Drew University Research Program where I began to conduct a comprehensive study on health disparities in underserved communities. My focus was to uncover the realities of individuals who were more prone to health issues and limited access to healthcare. This research helped me grant the Urban Health Institute Research Award in May 2023. My accomplishments inspired me to keep advocating for marginalized groups, and I participated in school forums where my peers and I talked about topics like bullying, mental health, and the underrepresentation of girls in sports. As I embarked on my first year at El Camino College, I looked for chances to contribute on campus and represent our students' interests to expose issues or implications from a student perspective to a wider audience. I eventually joined the Associated Student Organization and as the current Senator of Humanities, I came across so many individuals who inspire me with their uniqueness in projects and events, which I am honored to be involved in.

CANDIDATE FOR:

SENATOR OF INDUSTRY & TECHNOLOGY

Jagger Smith

Hello, my name is Jagger Smith, and I'm running for Senator of Industry and Technology. As a first year architecture student at El Camino, I'm eager to contribute to the growth and development of technology on our campus. My participation on campus comes from being the Secretary of the El Camino Body Building Club, where I ensure member engagement through various activities. Getting to meet students and cultivate relationships with them through this club has been my greatest motivation in running for this position. Being an architecture student and learning the fundamentals of design and ingenuity has taught me just how important technology has been in shaping our society. As I continue to learn about the evolution of technology in our world, I'm reminded of its impact and potential. I believe that students at El Camino deserve to have the resources necessary to educate themselves on our future. Through my experiences, I've learned how to blend scientific aspects of design with real world scenarios. This balance is important in ensuring that we not only innovate but also create solutions that are sustainable. As your Senator, I will work to ensure that students have access to the tools and resources necessary to succeed in a tech-driven world. With your support, we can work together to make these goals a reality on campus. Thank you for your consideration, I hope you will choose me to be your Senator of Industry and Technology, and together, we can build a brighter, more successful future for our community.

CANDIDATE FOR:

SENATOR OF MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES

Floriane Djeigo

As a passionate student in the field of mathematics, I believe that the success of our division relies not only on academic excellence but also on fostering a supportive and collaborative environment for all students. I am running for this position because I want to advocate for the needs and interests of my peers. I aim to ensure that every student in the division has access to the resources, opportunities, and support necessary for their success. Whether it's improving access to tutoring services, advocating for more interactive learning experiences, or creating a stronger sense of community within our division, I am committed to working toward these goals. I believe in the power of communication and collaboration. By listening to concerns, ideas, and feedback, I will be able to represent our collective interests effectively. Together, we can strengthen the Math Division, not only academically but also as a community where every student feels valued and supported. I humbly ask for your support in this endeavor, and I am excited about the opportunity to serve as your Senator. Let's work together to make our division a place where students thrive and succeed.

CANDIDATE FOR:

SENATOR OF NATURAL SCIENCES

Anais Ibanez

Hello Warriors! My name is Anais Ibanez, and I am honored to run as your representative for the Natural Sciences Department in ASO. I'm currently 19 years old and study Kinesiology and Biology! Science has always been a part of who I am. I grew up camping and hiking with my family - collecting small rocks and leaves I would find on the floor with my brothers, and taking them home to examine. I am passionate about science and know firsthand how important STEM is to our community and society. That being said, I am very aware of how challenging and rigorous of a subject it is to study! For that reason, I am passionate about fostering a supportive and collaborative environment where the student body of Natural Sciences can grow together, and incorporate the fun of science into our own communities to tackle personal, local and global issues. I love science because it is versatile and can help any aspect of our differing lives. I hope you consider me as your next Natural Science Senator!

CANDIDATE FOR:

SENATOR OF NATURAL SCIENCES

Yu Nandar Thu Ya (Bay)

Hello, my name is Yu Nandar Thu Ya (Bay), and I'm excited to be running for re-election as your Senator of Natural Sciences at El Camino College.

Serving in this role has given me the opportunity to better understand the needs of our student community and to advocate for a more connected and supportive environment within the sciences. If re-elected, I will continue working to strengthen communication between students and faculty, support science-related student initiatives, and help create more opportunities for academic growth and collaboration. I believe in the power of student voices and am committed to representing our diverse community with care and integrity. Thank you for your support! let's continue building something great together.

CANDIDATE FOR:

SENATOR OF LIBRARY AND LEARNING RESOURCES

Eleni Klostrakis

Hello! My name is Eleni Klostrakis, and I'm running to be your Library and Learning Resources Senator! For me, the library has always been a home away from home—whether I was staying after school to work on school projects or using its academic databases for research. It holds deep personal significance, and representing this vital part of student life would be a true honor. I am committed to fostering a library community that feels like a refuge for students—a welcoming space where everyone can learn, collaborate, and thrive. As your senator, I will listen to your concerns and ideas to create a library environment that truly reflects students' needs. I will also focus on improving the accessibility and promotion of the library's resources, ensuring that every student can take full advantage of what it has to offer. With skills in public speaking, media literacy, and community engagement, I can effectively advocate for a more inclusive, resourceful, and welcoming library space for all. A key focus of my campaign is community engagement because it amplifies student voices and creates an environment shaped by their needs and ideas. By fostering interaction and collaboration, we can ensure that students play an active role in shaping the library experience. I will advocate for more workshops and events to help students connect with library resources while building a stronger sense of community. Through meaningful engagement, I aim to empower student voices and ensure they are heard, valued, and reflected in the library's future. I'd be honored to have your support and the opportunity to make a meaningful impact on the student experience at El Camino College. Go Warriors!

CANDIDATE FOR:

Hana Lathrop

My name is Hana Lathrop, and I am running to continue serving as your Senator of Library and Learning Resources at El Camino College. As a dedicated student advocate, I aim to strengthen learning resources and make the library a more engaging, accessible space for everyone. As a frequent user of the library and tutoring services, I know firsthand how valuable these resources are—not just for academics, but as a place to study and connect. I want to ensure every student has access to the same support that has made a difference in my college experience. In my time as senator, I've worked to enhance student engagement and outreach, ensuring student voices are heard and acted upon. My leadership experience includes serving in the TUSD Superintendent's Leadership and Advisory Group, as Press Club President, and as a National Honor Society Board Member, where I developed strong advocacy and leadership skills. Being a first year, I bring a fresh perspective and a commitment to real change. I am eager to expand library events and raise awareness of available resources ultimately building a strong student community. If elected, I will: Host more library events to foster collaboration and learning. Advertise learning resources so every student knows what's available. Navigate student concerns by improving engagement during office hours Advocate for better outreach to ensure all student voices are heard. I hope to create a positive impact on campus with the help of your vote. Thank you for your consideration.
