El Camino College and the Alan Chan Jazz Orchestra to Present: A night full of jazz tunes, from “Rancho Calaveras” to “Shrimp Tale”

El Camino College faculty member Alan Chan will showcase his talents at 8 p.m. March 6 in Marsee Auditorium with a jazz/big band concert.

A music instructor and director of several El Camino College jazz productions, Chan will take the stage to lead the Alan Chan Jazz Orchestra. Known simply as ACJO, the orchestra has successfully unveiled its “Rancho Calaveras” EP. Chan was also praised for his distinct and “genre-shaking” sound, upon the release of the group’s debut album “Shrimp Tale,” this past summer.

Chan is a critically acclaimed jazz artist who has lived and toured in the United States, Asia, and Europe. Orchestras, college and high school bands, and jazz bands, including the Brussels Jazz Orchestra, have performed his work. Chan founded the Alan Chan Jazz Orchestra in 2012 which is comprised of top Los Angeles studio and jazz musicians.

Tickets to the performance are $20 and may be purchased online at centerforthearts.org, by phone at 310-329-5345 or toll-free at 800-832-ARTS. The Ticket Office is open Monday through Friday 10 a.m.–6 p.m. Campus parking is $3. The El Camino College Marsee Auditorium is located at 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, Torrance.
