Warrior Closet Has Reopened for Students and their Families

El Camino College recently reopened its successful Warrior Closet, offering a variety of free clothing for students. including professional and casual wear, children's clothes, shoes, accessories, and bedding items. After closing for two years due to COVID-19, the Warrior Closet opened again under the leadership of El Camino financial aid adviser Sharonda Barksdale, with the goal to ensure that limited clothing does not hold students back from achieving their academic goals. "We are open to every student, and they are welcome to take items for their family as well," said Barksdale, who serves as the foster youth and homeless liaison in the Financial Aid Office.
