The History We Stand On

A Chronicle of the Land that
El Camino College Occupies

Library Exhibit - May 12th through September 30th

MAY 12, 2022 • 1:15 PM

EL CAMINO COLLEGE LIBRARY LOBBY

Join us for the opening reception of an exhibit that examines the history of the land occupied by El Camino College. Learn about the first inhabitants, the Gabrielino-Tongva, and the contested use of land throughout history, including Mexican ranchos, Japanese tenant farming, and Gordon Manor, a proposed middle class housing tract slated for African Americans.
