

Join PATHWAYS TO COMPUTING FOR WOMEN OF COLOR (PCWOC) at UCI

Pathways to Computing for Women of Color (PCWOC) at UCI is a computing community to support Black, Latinx, and Native American women matriculating from community college to UCI or another 4-year institution to pursue a bachelor's degree in computing.

Eligibility

- Must be enrolled in a California Community College
- Must be considering or majoring in computing
- Must be interested in pursuing a 4-year bachelor's degree

Benefits

- Be part of a cohort of women of color in pursuit of careers in computing
- Advising about careers in computing
- Academic success workshops in computing
- Industry tours
- Professional mentors in computing careers
- $1,000 stipend

Application Deadline: Sunday, July 31st, 2022

Application Link: <https://tinyurl.com/PCWOC-UCI-22> or scan QR code

For more information, contact oai@uci.edu or visit our website at <https://sites.uci.edu/pewoc/>