

OUT OF THE SHADOWS: LESSONS FROM DACA & THE DREAMMOVEMENT

"Using the past, to inform the present, to shape the future"

PRESENTATION

This pivotal social movement between 2010-14 was predominantly led by young high school and college-aged women and queer individuals, whose bravery and innovation redefined the American imagination of what it means to be undocumented. Presented by UndocuScholars LLC.

Through a combination of historical analysis and storytelling, this workshop will uncover why this often-forgotten history is vital for today's social rights movements. Attendees will learn how the strategies and successes of these young trailblazers can inform and inspire modern activism, ensuring a more inclusive and equitable future.

TUESDAY
OCTOBER
15, 2024

QUESTIONS?

JOSEFINA CRUZ

✉ jdcruz@elcamino.edu

Key Takeaways

- Analyze the strategic approaches used by movement leaders to achieve visibility & impact
- Importance of imperfect social movements and how adaptability contributed to the success of the Dream movement
- Understand historical insights to contemporary social justice efforts.
- Leave with an empathetic understanding of practical strategies for leading and engaging in social movements inspired by the bravery and innovation of Dream movement leaders

3 - 4:30 PM
CLICK OR SCAN

This event is ADA-compliant. For more information or to request accommodations no later than five (5) business days before this event, please contact: Josefina Cruz at jdcruz@elcamino.edu

IMMIGRANT STUDENT SUCCESS
EL CAMINO COLLEGE

