RAINBOW & RAZA

Celebrate the powerful intersection of Latinx/Hispanic Heritage Month and LGBTQ+ History Month with a special performance by Mariachi Arcoíris de Los Angeles, the world's first LGBTQ+ mariachi ensemble.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Presented during the two-week intersection of Latinx/Hispanic Heritage Month and LGBTQ+ History Month, the event celebrates the intersection of Latinx culture and LGBTQ+ identity through music, storytelling, representation, and conversation. The program will feature queer-inspired ranchera music and mariachi-style Broadway show tunes.

The event will begin with a Q&A and conversation with members of Mariachi Arcoíris de Los Angeles, exploring the meaning behind LatinxQ+ and LatinxQ+ Halfmoon Legacy, LGBTQ+ representation within mariachi and Latinx culture, and the ensemble's experiences challenging traditional expectations while proudly embracing the intersection of their cultural and LGBTQ+ identities

The conversation will set the stage for a live musical performance celebrating culture, authenticity, visibility, and pride.
