Spring 2022 Professional Development Day

We are El Camino: Stronger Together

Breakout Session Proposal Rubric

Criteria	Scoring Range
Relevancy to PD Day Theme Priority will be given to presentations that closely align with the theme of Spring 2022 Professional Development Day	3 = Extremely relevant 2 = Somewhat relevant 1 = Not very relevant
Collaboration Priority will be given to presentations that feature more than one presenter and presentations involving cross-discipline/area/program collaboration	3 = Presentation features presenters from different disciplines/areas/programs 2 = Presentation features two or more presenters from the same disciplines/area/program 1 = Presentation features one presenter
Interaction/Engagement Priority will be given to presentations that promote interaction and engagement with the audience	3 = Highly interactive (i.e., participants will engage with one another throughout the session) 2 = Somewhat interactive (i.e., participants will engage with one another at least once during the session) 1 = Not very interactive (i.e., attendees will listen and not engage with the presenter and/or each other)
Actionable Take-Aways Priority will be given to presentations which offer attendees actionable takeaways to implement in their work at ECC	3 = Presentation will provide more than one actionable take-away 2 = Presentation will provide one actionable take-away 1 = Presentation will not provide actionable take-aways
Clarity of Proposal Priority will be given to proposals with a clear, professional, and detailed program description.	2= Proposal provides a clear, professional, and detailed program description 1 = Program description lacks clarity, organization, and/or details