RACHEL PITTOCK

ATHLETE/ PROFESSOR/ LEADER

Rachel Pittock is a boxing instructor at El Camino College who has used her position to promote both the sport and the female athletes drawn to it. She has accomplished this not only by teaching the fundamentals of boxing, but also by looking for opportunities for her young athletes to showcase their skills. Professor Pittock established ECC's first official Fight Night boxing exhibition. She also partners with Sweet Science Boxing Gym to offer hours of free training to those who do not have the means to pay for lessons. In addition, she serves as president of the 310 Volleyball Club in the South Bay. In each of these endeavors, her goal is inclusion for the betterment of young people's lives and for the community.
