August 2019

The new 80,000 square foot Student Services building is now open making it easier for students and first-time visitors to access information and services.

Welcome Back!

2019-2020 School Year News

Fall is a wonderful time of year at El Camino College. Students are using their scholarships, the South Bay Promise program is in full swing with over 800 students, and the new Student Services building is open for business.

If you haven't visited lately, contact us for a campus tour. You'll be pleasantly surprised!

Community Giving

Thank You to Our 2018-2019 Donors

To recognize all our valuable supporters, a thank you ad was placed in five local publications in August (Beach Magazine, Beach Reporter, Daily Breeze, El Segundo Herald, and Peninsula Magazine).

Your support is paramount in funding scholarships, the South Bay Promise program, STEM, emergency funds, Warrior Pantry, Foster Youth, Veterans, and a multitude of programs at El Camino that benefit and serve our students.

And to you we say:

"THANKS!" Synonyms: gratitude, gratefulness, appreciation, acknowledgment, recognition, credit and, our favorite, hat tip!

What I Did This Summer...

Tzong-Han Wu Performs at Jacob's Pillow Dance

Tzong-Han Wu performed recently at the Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival.

El Camino College graduate Tzong-Han Wu plans to transfer to California Institute of the Arts as a dance major this fall, but first -- a command performance on the East Coast this past summer.

Wu's original choreographic work "Prosecutor On That Finger" was one of six pieces selected to be presented in August during the Inside/Out Series at the world-renowned Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival in Becket, Massachusetts. Her piece was the only one from a two-year college chosen from among 624 dances from American College Dance Association regional conferences across the United States to participate in the festival at Jacob's Pillow, which is known as read more here...

ECC Superintendent/President Dr. Dena Maloney is surrounded by ECC student participants, as well as El Camino College and UCLA administrators, at the poster symposium held at UCLA.

Engineering Summer Research at UCLA

This summer, six El Camino College STEM students were able to participate in the UCLA Samueli School of Engineering Summer Undergraduate Research Program (SURP). Students lived on campus at UCLA for eight weeks and showcased their research findings at a symposium held at the end of the program.

2019 Fall Sports

Go Warriors!

The 2019-20 ECC athletic teams have officially kicked off the season!

The Warriors Athletics program is coming off its most successful season ever, finishing seventh overall and third in Southern California in the 2018-19 National Alliance of Two-Year Collegiate Administrators (NATYCAA) Cup. It was the highest finish ever in ECC history in a year that saw the Warriors field five conference championship-winning teams (football, women's volleyball, women's basketball, women's tennis, men's volleyball) along with a number of individual conference champions in track and field, cross country and men's and women's swimming.
