

Topic	Beyond Mattering: Centering the Student Narrative
Description	Black Student Success Week will open with welcoming remarks from U.S. Secretary of Education Miguel Cardona, Board of Governors President Pamela Haynes, California Community Colleges Chancellor Eloy Ortiz Oakley, and scholar Dr. Frank Harris. The Black Hour will include highlighted Black student success data presented by The RP Group and will conclude with a panel of students and faculty sharing an intergenerational conversation centering the student narrative and moving beyond mattering.
Time	Apr 25, 2022 12:00 PM in Pacific Time (US and Canada)