Student Development Office

Associated Students Organization – November Update

- ASO has completed its election cycle of events as required by AB 963 the Civic and Voter Empowerment Act (2019). Here are some highlights:
 - 10 events with confirmed total attendance of: 1,146
 - 301 new registered student voters as tracked by the California Secretary of State – placing 11th out of 117 California Community College schools.
 - A perfect score of 234/234 on the Civic and Voter Engagement Action Plan for 2024-2026, with placement from the Secretary of State's office of the plan in the "Exceptional" category
- ASO's three homecoming week events welcomed 616 students to events that promoted spirit and active engagement at El Camino.
- ASO has partnered and attended many events across campus in collaboration with Outreach, Student Health Services, and the Veteran's Center.
- Our addition to the well-established Veteran's day event provided food to over 250 people, with our own Valerie Monteverde, Division Council Member of Mathematical Sciences, participating in the ceremony as a 6-year US Navy Veteran.
- Upcoming events include:
 - Our partnership with Basic Needs Fall Harvest Festival on 11/21
 - Our partnership with CARE/CALWORKS Holiday Party on 12/6

- Our premier event, Finals Madness, in collaboration with the Library, from 12/2-12/6 from 7 PM to Midnight each day.
- ASO Initiatives are focused on the following:
 - Bathroom Mirrors
 - Flowater Expansion
 - Campus Gym Access
- ASO, since our last update on October 15, has welcomed over 3,500 students and community members to our events and advocacy efforts. (3,516 to be exact)

Council on Advancing and Unifying Student Equity (CAUSE)

- The equity arm of ASO, CAUSE continues to meet biweekly on Monday mornings.
- Currently, we have representatives from 7 organizations attend but are constantly looking for more to be involved.
- CAUSE will partner with ASO's Spring Weeks of Welcome to host an Equity Mixer and Meet and Greet for all students, more information to come

The Odyssey Development Program

- Designed as a retention and engagement tool to catch non-cohorted students looking to be more involved, the Odyssey Development Program is in its second cohort this fall.
- This ten-week program, at no-cost to the district or its participants, seeks to implore and inspire students to gain introductory insight to various aspects of leadership, identity development, career preparation, and more.
- A small, but mighty cohort of around 20 students has taken up this program this fall, complementing our first cohort of approximately 30 students, which completed the program last Spring.
- We're grateful to our partner presenters this semester, including: Black Student Success Center (Keiana Daniel), Transfer Center (Jaime Gallegos), Career Center (Carla Camacho and Adrian Delgado), Kinecta (David Fuller) and Student Health Services.

ICC (THE INTER-CLUB COUNCIL) UPDATES

- The Inter-Club Council completed Homecoming week with events such as Dodgeball and a Fall Dance serving over 300 students on El Camino's Campus.
- The Inter-Club Council led a successful half time show at El Camino's Saturday football game on 10/26
- The Inter-Club Council hosted a Horror Fest that resulted in serving over 50 club members and leaders with a costume party and horror/fall festivities.
- The Inter-Club Council has awarded over $1,000 to club for their respective club funds while keeping the club support account robust for more clubs to request money for their personal endeavors.
- The Inter-Club Council is headed to NACA Conference 11/14-11/17 to engage/collaborate with other colleges and universities on campus activities.
- The Inter-Club Council has chartered over 50 official clubs for the Fall Semester and counting 😊
- The Inter-Club Council hired and appointed 12 new cabinet members for the 2024-2025 academic year to bring our team to the most members in all of ICC Cabinet history.
- The Inter-Club Council accomplished one of our mental health initiatives by hosting a mental health event on campus which resulted in reaching over 300 students and community members.
- The Inter-Club Council will be present and assisting in ASO's Finals Madness the first week of December.
- The Inter-Club Council is volunteering time and resources for Basic Need's Harvest all month until the official event.
- The Inter-Club Council events for December will be a Holiday Party, Making Friends Event, and a Cultural Feast.
