

Federal Immigration Officials on Campus

Know what to do

If a federal immigration official is on campus and requests access to student information, access to district records or entrance to a facility:

Do Not Panic

Immediate compliance is not required. Our college has state legal procedure we have to follow. Immigration officers are not above state laws.

Ask for Identification

Ask the official to identify themselves by their name, identification number, and agency.

Notify the Vice President of Student Services

Contact the Vice President of Student Services at 310-660-3593 ext.3471 during regular office hours. After hours, contact Campus Police at 310-660-3100.

Warrant verification and subpoenas are required

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can I release student information to law enforcement officials?

Not without official district permission from the Vice President of Student Services. Student information is governed by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), which protects student data.

Will the El Camino College Campus Police Department enforce federal immigration laws? No. El Camin College will:

- Not enter into agreements with law enforcement agencies or federal departments for the enforcement of federal immigration law
- Not honor immigration hold requests
- Not contact, detain, question or arrest individuals solely on the basis of declared or suspected immigration status

El Camino College will continue to respect and support the California Trust Act (AB 4), which does not allow minor infractions to trigger deportations. The El Camino College Board of Trustees will continue to work at all levels of government to advocate for the rights of our diverse student population to obtain a quality education.

Since El Camino College is an open campus, can law enforcement officials access all areas of campus without permission?

No. Although El Camino College is a public institution, there are areas on campus that have limited access, including classrooms, locked offices or areas marked as “authorized personnel” that cannot be accessed without official District permission.

Are there different rules for international students?

No. Campus policies also pertain to international students.
