CAMPUS ADVISORY

April 4, 2016

James Lemus (pictured), who was taken into custody on October 1, 2014 for making threats against El Camino College employees and students, will be released from L.A. County Sheriff's custody on Tuesday, April 5, 2016. He is on probation status. Lemus' restraining order to stay away from the El Camino College campus is still in place. He must also comply with other terms of his probation. After his release, Lemus will receive support services and will be under the care of licensed healthcare personnel.

James Lemus is described as a male Hispanic adult, 5-feet 7-inches tall, 145 pounds, with black hair and brown eyes. If seen on campus, please dial 911 from a landline phone, 310-660-3100 from a cell phone, or use a campus "Code Blue" emergency phone.

For your safety:

- If you see something, say something. By working together we all contribute to the safety of our college campus.
- Sign up to receive Nixle emergency alerts from ECC Campus Police, simply text 888777 and type ECCPD (for ECC notifications) or CECPD (for Compton Center notifications). For more info on Nixle: www.elcamino.edu/police/
- In an emergency, contact Campus Police by calling 911 from a landline phone; 310-660-3100 from a cell phone; or use a campus "Code Blue" emergency phone.
- Have keys in hand before walking to your car
- Always be aware of your surroundings – remember the use of listening devices and cell phones may significantly distract you
- Don't walk alone; use the buddy system
- Use cautious judgment: meet new people, including classmates or colleagues, in public places; do not get into a car or go to out-of-the-way places with someone you do not know
- Learn the location of "Code Blue" POLICE phones located throughout campus. These phones are directly linked to the college Police Department and are considered 911 priority lines. Students and staff are encouraged to utilize these phones for any emergency
- Use ECC Courtesy Shuttle operated by ECC Police from 6:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.; on-call 24 hours. Use one of the POLICE phones located throughout campus, or call campus police 310-660-3100 for this service.
- Night students and faculty are encouraged to park in the same general area as other faculty or students with night classes in their building; this provides the opportunity for a group of students and faculty to walk together to their cars after dark
- Immediately report any suspicious activity to campus police
- Be alert! Be prepared!
