El Camino College Police are requesting assistance in identifying a suspect (pictured above) involved in a cell phone robbery on campus.

The incident occurred at about 3:30 p.m. Friday, October 2, near the Men's Physical Education Building. The suspect reportedly walked up to the victim and asked if he could borrow his iPhone 6 to make a call. When the suspect completed his call, he told the victim that he would not return the phone to him. A short struggle for the phone ensued. The victim was unable to retrieve his cellphone and followed the suspect through campus to Crenshaw/Redondo Beach boulevards, until he was out of sight. The suspect was described by victim as having a tattoo along the side of his finger (right hand) reading "777." The stolen cellphone is a white, iPhone 6, with a silver case.
