Will I still receive my financial aid even though the campus is closed due to COVID-19?

Yes, financial aid is being disbursed to currently enrolled students as scheduled. All grants, loans and other awards are being processed remotely. The disbursement schedule for Pell and SEOG is attached: <https://www.elcamino.edu/student/studentservices/financialaid/disbursementinfo.aspx>

Can I still apply for financial aid?

Yes, you can still apply for financial aid. Whether you're planning to go to college or pursue a career education, there's money to help you pay for it. We encourage you to apply online through one of two methods:

1. Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) (<https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>)
2. California Dream Act Application for AB-540 Eligible Students (<https://dream.csac.ca.gov/>)

We are continuing to process financial aid applications and update awards. Please logon to MyECC (<http://www.elcamino.edu/myecc/>) to check financial aid status and submit required documents.

Will I receive a check for my CCPG Award?

No, the California College Promise Grant (CCPG) is a fee waiver from the state of California. You will not receive money, however your per unit fees will be waived for any classes you take at El Camino College for one academic year, starting in fall and ending the following summer.

Are there any emergency funds available for currently enrolled students?

Yes, Emergency Funds are available for ECC students. To apply for the Warrior Emergency Grant please use the following link: https://elcamino.formstack.com/forms/warrior_emergency_fund

Can my financial aid be updated if I have had significant changes to my income?

Yes, you can file a Family Contribution Appeal if your financial situation has changed. The appeal can be filled out online using the following link: <https://elcamino.verifymyfafsa.com/>. We encourage you to meet with an Advisor online to discuss your options by scheduling an appointment on the El Camino Financial Aid website: <http://www.elcamino.edu/student/studentservices/financialaid/>.

Can I submit a Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) appeal?

Yes, you may still submit a SAP appeal. There are two ways to submit to Financial Aid:

1. Online: Email eccfaid@elcamino.edu for a copy of the SAP Appeal or check Financial Aid Forms (<http://www.elcamino.edu/student/studentservices/financialaid/forms.aspx>). Submit your completed SAP Appeal and supporting documentation online to eccfaid@elcamino.edu. If you need to scan a document, you can download a free mobile app CamScanner at <https://camscanner.com>. This app can convert and auto-adjust any picture that you take from your phone into a PDF.
2. Mail: If you do not have access to a computer, printer or internet we can mail you a copy of the SAP Appeal form. Please notify us with your full name, student ID number and current mailing address. We will provide a prepaid envelope to return your completed appeal with supporting documentation.

All appeals must have supporting documentation included for each semester you are not meeting SAP. Please allow four (4) to six (6) weeks for appeal decisions which will be sent to your El Camino College email address.

Will the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) appeal deadline be extended?

Yes, we are extending the SAP Appeal deadline to Thursday, May 21, 2020.

What will happen to my Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standing if my classes are canceled or I withdraw due to COVID-19?

Classes with a grade of EW will be excluded from the SAP calculation for GPA and completion percentage.

Will I still be able to receive my Federal Work Study (FWS) or CalWORKs Work Study (CWS)?

Yes, our campus will continue to pay FWS and CWS wages to enrolled students who started working prior to Friday, March 13, 2020. Please work with your employer to have your timesheets submitted as usual. If your employer has any questions, please have them contact Luis Mancía at lmancia@elcamino.edu so we can provide further guidance.

NOTE: We are not currently approving any new requests for FWS or CWS until the Safer-at-Home order is lifted and we can return to campus.

Are there additional resources to address Basic Needs for students?

Yes, the Basic Needs Committee works together to provide a central place to address the Basic Needs for our ECC students. Resources are listed in the Student Guide to Free & Low Cost Resources (<https://bit.ly/resouceguide>) posted online. We also have the following updates available:

Food Insecurity: Warrior Pantry (<https://www.elcamino.edu/student/student-services/warriorpantry/>) "Drive-Through Grab-A-Bag" - Students who are registered for the spring semester have the opportunity to drive through parking lot B and pick up their bag at the large white canopy on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 11:00am-2:00pm. Parking Lot B can be accessed from Manhattan Beach Blvd.

Student Health Services: Mental Health (<https://www.elcamino.edu/student/student-services/health/>) Student Health Services is offering virtual drop-in Nurse Practitioner consultation hours and drop-in mental health "check-ins" to currently enrolled El Camino College students who have paid their student health fee for the spring 2020 semester.

Housing Insecurity: Campus Peer Navigation – Seeks to connect students to community resources and the Coordinated Entry System (CES) and improve linkages between colleges and homeless services providers across Los Angeles County. Contact Daniel Gonzalez (dgonzalez@harborinterfaith.org) for more information.
