ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

Transfer Requirements

> The following requirements for the major are subject to change without notice. To assure accuracy of the information on this sheet, you should consult with an administration of justice counselor, the articulation officer, or review articulation agreements via the internet at www.assist.org.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES:

Several options are available to administration of justice graduates. Law Enforcement programs prepare individuals for careers at the federal, state and local levels of government as well as in business and industry (e.g. a city Police Department, State Narcotics Enforcement Bureau, and U.S. Department of Justice, private police firm.) Corrections programs are for students interested in careers in probation, parole, penal and correctional institutions. The Criminalistics option emphasizes scientific criminal investigation techniques, as needed by identification and laboratory technicians. Training beyond the bachelor's degree may be necessary. Security Administration emphasizes industrial and security agency approaches (e.g. airport, schools, and public housing.)
