

Report Manager Analysis Manager Analysis Properties Edit Analysis Run Analysis

Home → Report Manager → 2014 - FYE Pre-Or... → 2014 - FYE Pre-Or... → Run Analysis

User: tclifford

2014 - FYE Pre-Orientation Survey

Page 1  Start Date:  12 End Date:  12 Filter By Date

1. Please tell us one goal you would like to accomplish during your freshman year in college for yourself.

Response Count: 300

- test
- Be active, get to know different people, join groups on campus, finish G.E.'s and transfer.
- Get high grades
- Finish swift and handle business.
- Be able to apply to the radiology program by the end of freshman year.
- Just go to school basically be on task
- To become comfortable with college environment.
- Try to get all my g.e.s. done and get into college level math & english.
- Pass all my classes while going to work.
- One goal I would like to accomplish during my freshman year in college is to be more open to others, not being shy.
- My goal is to overcome my fears of speaking in public.
- My goal is to overcome my fears of speaking in public.
- Maintain good grades
- A goal would be to ace all my classes.
- Straight A's in all my classes
- To obtain a 4.0 GPA.
- To obtain a 4.0 GPA.
- I would like to meet new people.
- One goal I would like to accomplish my freshman year is being able to gradually take & understand all the information I receive from this program so I can utilize it while I'm here in EICo.
- One goal I'd like to accomplish during my freshman year is to have good grades and finish the year with at least a 3.5 GPA.
- pass all my classes, I would also like to maintain a good gpa.
- Achieve a high enough GPA to transfer to the school of my choice.
- Pass all of my classes with the least possible stress.
- Get straight A's
- I would like to figure out which career I want to pursue & the college I will transfer to.
- Find my major and career goal.
- Get good grades in all of my classes
- Get A's in all my classes.
- Get good grades and get a high GPA.
- graduate freshman year. pass all my classes

Understand how I study and the best way to manage my time.
I would like to accomplish how to better manage my time and some more useful study tools.
Get a job
Become a better student
Pass all my classes and start off with a good start. to college. Also find my major.
I would like to accomplish better time management skills
keep a high GPA
Have a high GPA.
Maintain a 4.0 and staying focused so I can transfer where I want to go.
To be able to take the time to study and do homework & not procrastinate.
Pass all my my classes and be on track to get out of C.C. in 2 years.
Pass all my classes and get used to college
Make a great first impression.
A lot of knowledge
to get more organized, and get better sleep schedule.
Staying on track to transfer.
I would like to be on track to transfer by the end of sophomore year.
Manage my time well and achieve a minimum GPA of 3.0
One goal would be to get a high G.P.A.
Surpass all of my high school years in terms of GPA. Actually stick to my goals.
I want to get good grades and make sure to not get behind in my classes my freshman year.
One of the goals I want to accomplish during freshman year is getting straight A's.
I would like to obtain a GPA of 3.5
I would like to become more involved in the activities I'm interested in.
graduate
I would like to make some friends in FYE and try to stay on track to graduate in 2016.
Pass classes
To be able to pass my classes
I would like to ace all my classes and develop a good study habit.
I would like to get above a 3.5 gpa.
Stay focused & obtain the best grades possible.
Get a 4.0 GPA to make transferring easier.
My goal for this year would be to have the rest of my education plan figured out and stay organized.
My transfer requirements started
My goal for my freshman year in college is to be able to fully understand the steps and process of transferring to a university.
I would like to train and develop greater time management skills.
My main goal is to finish off freshman year with a 4.0 G.P.A
My goal is to improve my learning habits and get all my requirements to transfer.
A very good GPA
My goal is to start finding my true calling, and to keep my grades up
My goal during freshman year is to get an "A" in all four of my classes.
My main goal would be to succeed in every class.
Receive all A's in my classes.
I would like to transfer with at least 35 units and a 4.0 GPA.
To transfer with 35 units, a 4.0 and within a year.
To transfer with at least 30 units to USC.
Make the necessary connections and friendships with the correct people that will genuinely help me move along to a bright future.
I want to learn more about transferring so I can study languages more + become a translator
I would like to conquest math skills & become a better hard worker.

A goal I have for my freshman year is to be on track.
My goal is to pass all my classes with at least a B.
Get half of my transfer credits out of the way
Become efficient and self reliant quickly in a new environment
I want to maintain a GPA of 2.9 at least
Pass every class
Meet new people.
A goal I would want to accomplish would be to pass all my classes with an A at least.
I want to pass all my classes and find a good way to manage my schedule.
To decide what I want to do as a career. I have ideas but I'm not set on anything.
get a good gpa so I can transfer to a cal state
I'd like to get a good GPA
Who knows?
Meet the transfer requirements and transfer in a year.
Transfer in 1 year
Earn enough credits/good GPA to be able to transfer in one year
Transfer within 1 year
Get a 4.0 G.P.A. or higher
To earn the required credits and get one step closer to transferring to a 4 year university.
Keep up with my classes, like with my grades and stuff.
Make studying first priority, better focus on studying.
Get a high GPA so I can get in the honor society hear.
Pass all my classes.
Stay on track and finish my first year strong as a freshman.
My goal is to keep my GPA high
Get good grades, pass all my classes
Not fail any classes.
I would like to establish my major, learn as much as I can and get as much of my general Ed. done as I can in my first year.
I wanna get through my first and last english class
Better my studying skills, manage my time, and do well in classes.
I would like to do well in all my classes and pass with good grades.
I would like to study hard freshman year and pass all of my classes.
completing my general education as quickly & as efficiently as possible.
I would want to pass all my classes this year, be organized, & manage my time better.
I would like to pass all my classes with good grades.
I would like to get good grades
My goal would be that I'm able to get good grades and complete all my classes without failing or dropping them.
I would like to join the honors transfer program.
To complete all or most classes with an A.
I would like to establish routine, healthy study habits.
Being on time to all my classes
Make new friends and to learn more about what I will be majoring in
Make new friends and to learn more about what I will be majoring in
To stay focus on the career I want in life.
One goal I wish to accomplish through out my freshman year in college is for me to learn a lot and not mess up starting college.
I would like to expand my vocabulary.
My goal for my freshman year or college is to pass all my classes.
To stay focused
I would like to accomplish getting organized in all of my classes.

get organized and get ready to transfer to a 4-year university.
Maintain at least a 3.0 GPA
Finish all my units I signed up for
I would like to start a network of people who are reliable and can assist me in achieving future success.
Pass classes
get all a's/B's, C's party hard!!!
For once, focus. And not turn things in late.
PASS ALL MY CLASSES
My goal is to be prepared for college, make friends, pass all my classes, organize my work, and hopefully decide what I want to major on.
To stay focused
Get higher than a 3.5 GPA.
Get good grades to get into programs to help me transfer
To figure out what my career should be.
I would like to join a club.
I would like to earn good grades through out my whole college years.
Passing my classes
Pass all the classes.
One goal that I personally would like to accomplish is to not be late to class and finish my classes with great citizenship and good grades.
Get a good education and be familiar with things
To keep up with all my classes and not be behind.
Pass all my classes with a B or higher.
Break my habit of procrastinating.
good grades
Get straight A's
Pass all my classes
Pass all my classes Find a major pass all my classes with good grades
One goal I have for this year is to pass my classes grades fantastic
Straight A's to qualify for the honors transfer program.
pass all of my classes
To be able to wake up on time for class everyday
To be able to wake up early everyday. Also, to have a stable academic/work life.
I would like to set challenges for myself to go above and beyond required. I will push myself.
Meet new people
I would like to maintain a 4.0 GPA through out the year and start working on whatever it is that I will need to transfer to a 4-year university.
One goal I have for freshman year is to get in clubs on campus.
Get involved in as many clubs as possible and stay an active member.
to master each of my subjects with a B or above
Maintain a 3.5 + GPA
I would like to get to know my campus + resources well.
Maintain a high G.P.A.
Have good grades/pass all my classes
Pass all my classes with a "B" or higher pass with a 3.5 GPA or higher
One goal I would like to accomplish during my freshman year is pass my class.
I would like to be able to pass all my classes with a B or higher

Be on track with my classes by getting all A's.
Finish most/all of my re-requisites
Maintaining a B or higher in all of my classes.
Get a high GPA
Join a club + get really active in extra-curriculars
Getting through my classes with good grades and go to tutoring
To get good grades & pass all of my classes.
Learn a lot about college life, transfer and financial aid
Do well in all my classes and understand the materials
To get settled into college and complete my first year.
Pass all my classes that I am taking with an A.
I'd like to transfer if possible
I would like to accomplish an educational plan and know what career I would want to do for the future.
I'd like to get good grades and get involved within the school in my freshman year.
This year at El Camino College I just want to get all my work done, get A's in all of my classes and not slack off one bit.
Be on my way to transfer out to hopefully UCLA
One goal I would like to accomplish would be to be on track with my classes (grades in order to transfer to a 4 year.
Make sure not to procrastinate on anything.
One of my goals for my freshman year is completing all of my units.
Be able to work and attend college at the same time.
I want to be one step closer to transferring to my dream university.
Don't receive a letter grade lower than a C. Maintain A,B, & C letter grades.
I would like to do well my first year and get good grades.
All my classes
One goal I would like to accomplish during my freshman year in college is to remain organized and finding myself through the experiences I face.
I would like to get a good start with good grades in all my classes and with good focus.
Finish semester with 2.5 gpa or better
Make sure not to procrastinate on anything.
Pass all classes
to pass all of my classes with decent grades
My one goal to accomplish during freshman year is to earn enough credits to transfer out as fast as I can.
I would like to get very good grades and know that I tried my best.
Getting everything done
I will like to pass all my courses the first time, so there will be no reason to retake them.
Get a 3.0 gpa
pass all my classes
One of my goals is to become more aware of my surroundings and to become more organized.
I would like to accomplish during my freshman year is having a 4.0 & finishing my classes.
One goal I'd like to accomplish is earning B's or higher in my classes.
I would like to join the soccer team, and pass all my classes.
Get all A's
Get to know the staff on a personal level
One goal is to be on track
I want to be able to finish 25-30 units.
Learn how to manage time
My goal is that I would like to get a good understanding of how the college is.
N/A
Do my best and get the best grades I can get.

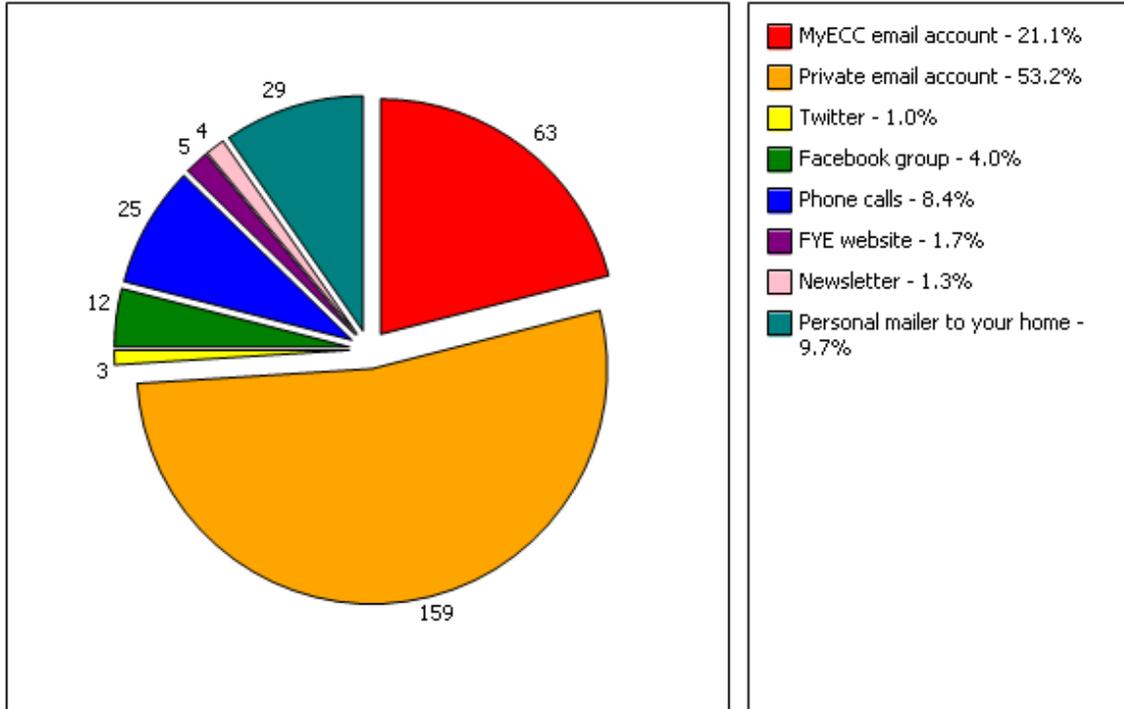

My goal freshman year is to complete all of the classes I need & to learn as much as possible.
Get grades above a "C". Focus more on school.
My freshman year goal is since I am a linguistic major to be able to speak my foreign language fluently (Elementary Level)
Pass classes with a B or better
I would like to accomplish getting good grades at the end of the semesters and be able to make new friends at the same time.
Pass all my classes
To complete my classes by getting A's in them.
I would like to finish this semester with an A or B grade average.
Pass my classes and catch up to college level classes quickly.
Make the Deens list
To pass all my classes with an A- or better.
I would like to get myself involved with the schools community and do well in my first semester courses.
I want to maintain a 3.0 GPA or higher so I can be a part of the honors transfer program.
I'd like to end the semester with a 3.5 or higher.
I want to study at least an hour a day everyday.
Achieve a high GPA
Achieve a good grade in all classes
To get all A's for all my classes.
To pass all my classes
To know what my major is a 100%
Pass my classes
Being able to challenge myself through course work given to me.
A's or B's grades
To pass all my classes.
To pass all my classes.
I would like to meet new people and try to enjoy my first year.
I would like to pass all my classes with a "B" or better.
Pass all classes
To get some general classes and college experience.
Better grades
I would like to stay in track and get all the units I need to transfer.
Figure out what I want to study.
To get closer to earning an A.A. degree in sign language
Pass all my classes with an "B" or higher. To get to meet new people.
One goal that I would like to accomplish during my freshman year at college is to start of on the right foot. I would like to get really good grades, and only focus on school.
Pass all my classes
Not sure
I would like to accomplish passing all my classes.
Pass all my classes.
I would like to pass all my classes.
Be less anti-social
To find a job in a comfy environment.
Get a job.
Pass all my classes
Pass
Get through as many credits as possible & also decide on which colleges I would like to transfer to.
Good grades
Get straight A's

Get my 15 units and move on to Biola U.
I would like to get some type of idea of what I want to major in.
I would like to finish my first year with good grades.
I'd like to complete my classes with knowing a lot.
Become a better person
Get myself ready and prepared for college.
My goal I would like to accomplish would be to pass my classes successfully.
Pass all classes with a B or higher.
One goal that I would like to accomplish during my freshman year in college would be to keep my grades up by completing all of my assignments.
Get good grades
Get a 3.5 GPA
To pass all my classes & figure out what I wanna do with my life.
Getting through my first year is my goal!
Pass all my classes, develop great study skills.
Get all my credits
To pass all my classes without dropping any.
During my first year of college my goal is to complete 30 units or more with a GPA higher than a 3.2.
I would like to get good grades maybe keep a 4.0 GPA
Get my total of 30 credits for the first year and be on the track of getting out of here in 2 years.
Getting good grades and doing my best.
One goal I would like to accomplish is to get straight A's freshman year.
I want/need to pass and complete all classes
Pass most of my classes and try not to procrastinate
I would like to get good grades.
One of my goals for this freshman year would be to do good in all my classes.
For my freshman first year in college I would like to start the right way. I want to pass everyone of my classes.
I would like to pass all of my classes and have none dropped.
To have A's and B's in my classes.
Passing all courses with great effort.

2. Please tell us the best way you would like to receive information this year regarding the college.

Response Count: 299

2. Please tell us the best way you would like to receive information this year regarding the college. - 299 Responses

3. How familiar are you with campus resources?

Response Count: 299

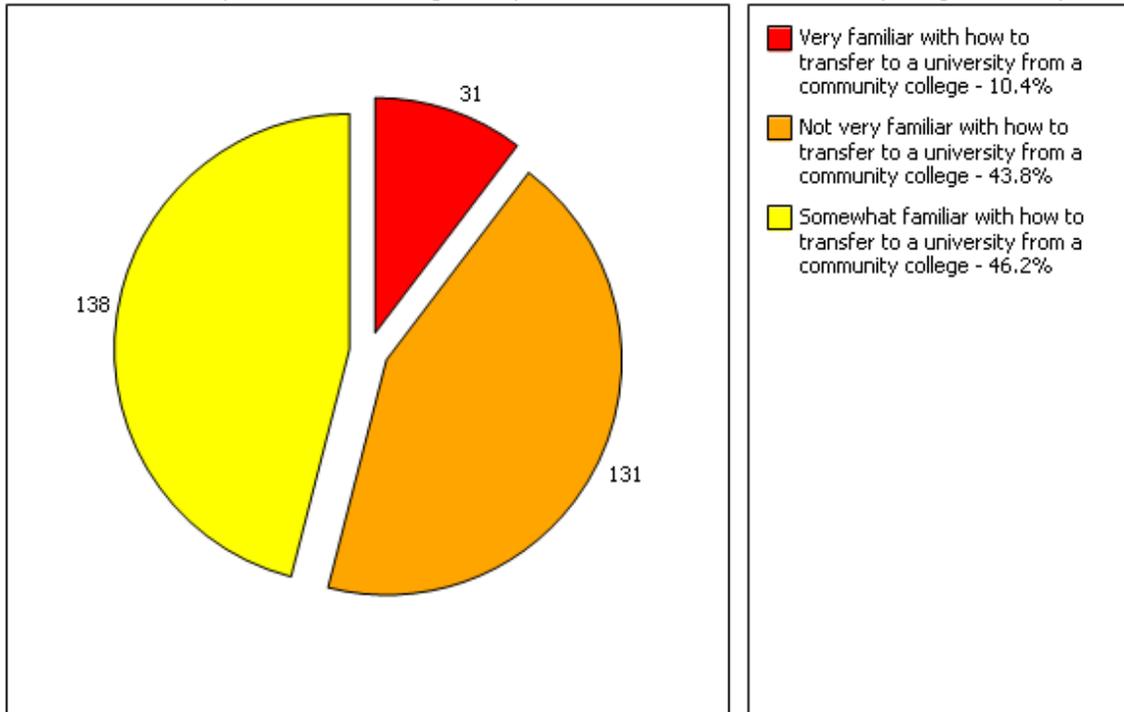

3. How familiar are you with campus resources? - 299 Responses

4. How familiar are you with understanding the steps needed to transfer from a community college to a four-year university?

Response Count: 299

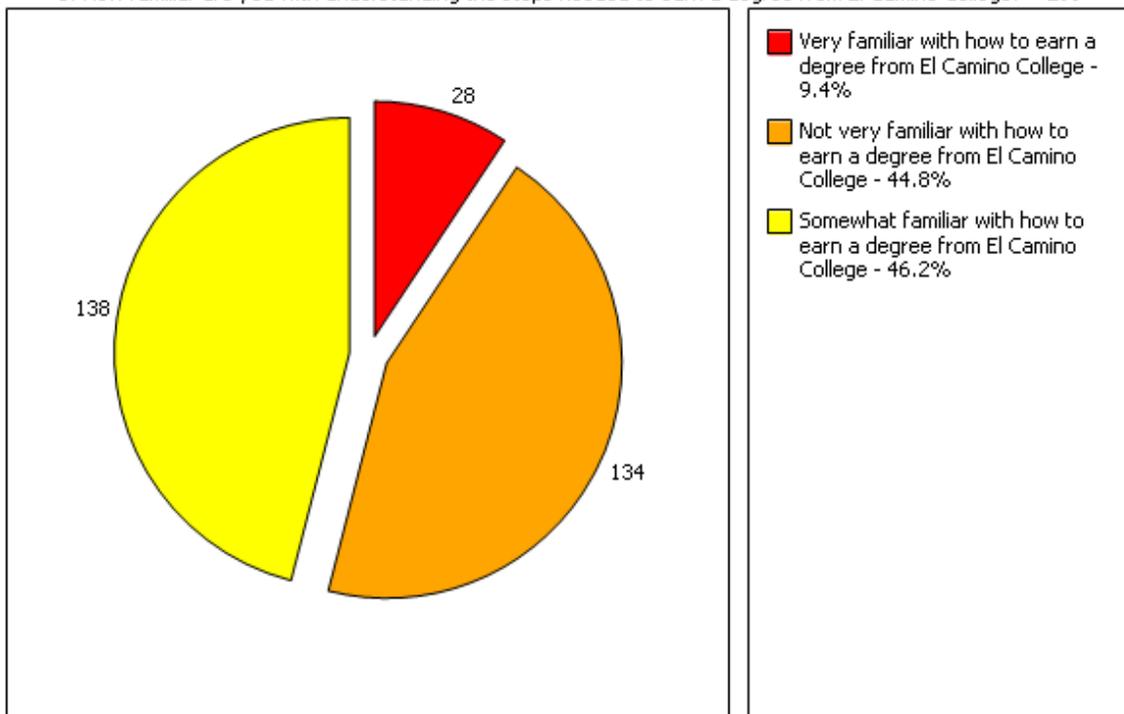

4. How familiar are you with understanding the steps needed to transfer from a community college to a four-year

5. How familiar are you with understanding the steps needed to earn a degree from El Camino College?

Response Count: 299

5. How familiar are you with understanding the steps needed to earn a degree from El Camino College? - 299

6. Please tell us what you value the most within your first year in college.

Response Count: 300

test
I value my worth and education.
Taking the classes I need to help me transfer.
Idle time/Art
Getting the classes I really need.
Just education to better myself and have a better future.
Class grades
How things work at college
How to manage school work and a job.
I value getting an education.
Bondage
Bondage
Chance to be familiar with work needed for college, the expectations.
learning to adapt to the new school environment.
growing in my my writing skills, and reading comprehension skills.
I value my education.
I value my education.
Passing all my classes.
Being able to familiarize myself in campus & gain as much experience as I can.
What I value the most within my first year is the experiences I will go through.
N/A
New learning experiences.
Good education
Getting to know everything well such as teachers & steps I need to take in order to transfer.
I value good study habits to earn good grades
Good grades
learning
learning new things.
My education.
my education.
N/A
I value meeting new people and getting the best grades to transfer.
Getting a job
FAFSA
My study skills.
I value being able to learn in a different environment with different teachers and peers.
Studies
N/A
N/A
Remaining focused
Understand college better
Passing college
Getting good grades
Good experience A lot of XP getting a good education, experience and friendships.
Getting the hang of the high school to college switch.

Being able to transition from high school to college.
Experiencing new things and learning how to adapt to college life.
Getting involved with the school and aiming towards my goal of a high G.P.A.
The resources provided through FYE as they facilitate the transition from hs to college & college to a four year university.
The financial aid I got and the ability to be part of the FYE.
what I value the most within the first year of college is freedom and responsibility.
The program; makes it easier
I value this program because it makes me feel more comfortable.
good grades/tutoring
I value getting good grades and getting along with my teacher so I can receive my AA.
My grades
Having the chance to go to college and passing the required courses I need to transfer.
starting off my education right!
I value getting good grades.
learning new material & getting familiar with the college lifestyle.
The support and guidelines to transferring.
I value how to be more independent.
getting a good start so I can transfer where I want
I will value the new friends that I will make.
I value the time and dedication that I am going to give while being in college, serving the military and working a part-time job to support my family.
I value the support of my counselors and teachers who will help me in the process of transferring to USC the most.
The connections
The support I'm receiving from FYE
Spending time efficiently, and taking advantage of opportunities learning how to manage my time well.
Manage time within my study and class time.
The resources provided in order to transfer in one year.
The resources provided to me by FYE and other supporting programs, in helping me with transferring.
The resources given to us. Support from others.
Networking with people who can help me transfer.
I value the transition I'm making from naive high school student to a full, independent college student.
getting a good basis for further learning and the first step towards my career.
The chance of making better my education.
N/A
N/A
Learning as much as I can about transferring to a 4 year.
Being able to easily "learn the ropes" and get started with the campus in general.
Trying to see if college life is for me
Knowledge
Learning
The opportunities I have in el camino.
The opportunity to start new, meet new people, and learn new things.
What I value most for my first year in college is getting to know new people and making new friendships.
Taking advantage of resources.
I think that getting good classes and joining helpful programs that help me to understand the new community I have joined is what I value most Beats me.
My studies
Money

Networking
Keeping up with my school work.
Education
Being a part of FYE and starting fresh from high school
N/A
ability to focus on studies/organization
Getting familiar with the college.
The classes
N/A
Grades
The classes.
Friends
-clear and understandable information given to me so that I can understand and know what I need to do (for just about everything in general).
Education
I hope to pass all my classes and understand why I'm really here.
I value time management and responsibility in being able to do my work to the best of my ability and passing my classes.
I value working hard and doing my best in my first year of college.
Being able to get help w/school financially & getting the help from the FYE program.
N/A
N/A
I value all the time I will be putting into school and school work.
I value my teachers, I'm hoping they will like me.
I would value guidance the most during my first year of college.
Understanding how the college is structured in terms of earning a degree and transferring.
I value learning what student-professor/administration interaction is like at college.
Passing my classes
new friendships.
new friendships.
To get to the fire science program.
I'll value all the experiences I've had in college or will have in college.
Knowing that the major I chose is the right one for me.
Staying on the right track with my classes, to get me where I want to be.
I value my grades
Hard work and time management
work ethic
Getting good grades
My education
Having a clean slate from high school.
Getting sleep
making friends, getting good grades
First year; first step. I have to make every effort count.
learning
I want to pass all my classes and tests within my first year in college.
Academics
Being prepared & confident know what to do my second year in order to transfer out
My grades.
getting to pick my classes that work for me.
How my teachers teach.

Getting good grade and having a fun time while doing that. Also stay focus on the main goal: Graduating!
Having some idea of what college I have an idea of transferring to and degree
Study hard, be comfortable in school, and know the school better.
I value this amazing opportunity to get in college, because I always wanted to be the first of my family to attend college. Goal accomplish.
Grades
My grades in my first year of college.
I want to make school my main priority.
good grades
My studies, and major
Time management
To understand what it takes to succeed in college.
I value learning how to deal with college and learning how to find a major and transfer.
Studies.
What I love the most within my first year is being able to be part of FYE and get all the help I need.
my classes and grades
Performing well in my academic classes as well as in my sport.
The transition from high school to college because it might be hard for me, so if I can make it smooth I will be happy.
My time
My time/grades
I value time to study, work and be able to have some me time.
Passing
I value my grades and the resources I will need to transfer.
Time.
Learning more about what I'd like to become in the future.
* the experience because it is a new beginning
The experience as well as the education to benefit me.
A great learning experience in my campus + with my professors.
My grades in each class
The staff who are willing to help us.
The fact that I am in FYE to help me along the way
N/A
The most I value within my first year in college is the understanding of my class and passing them.
-To have the college experience
Using all of the resources provided to help us.
My classes
Grades!
Getting involved as much as possible.
Friendly, welcoming/inviting atmosphere/people
Getting to know my resources before my first year is over.
I value getting better grades.
having good grades and knowing the best thing to do
The help FYE is giving me!
My teachers and resources
I really don't know
The social experience
To gain knowledge and get a good start on the first year of college.
What I value the most within my first year in college is that I will be able to fulfill my career and that I can count with support and help.
The only thing I value is my grades and my studies.

	The thing I would value most from my first year in college would be to have a chance to get a tutor or mentor just to help me out with school.
	What I value the most is to be prepared for anything.
	I value my resources that will personally help me succeed
	Some of the campus resources available to me this year.
	Getting this experience.
	My grades is what I value the most.
	I value my education.
	grades
	experience and grades.
	The thing that I value the most within my first year in college is that I stay true to myself, remain happy and/or focused and be as organized as I can.
	I will value being able to feel comfortable in a more independent college atmosphere.
	Understanding the subject matter
	I value my resources that will personally help me succeed
	Getting good grades
	Just being on time
	Getting good grades
	Take advantage of all resources that are given to me and to really get involved.
	My work ethic
	I value the opportunity to achieve for a lower cost than a University.
	Passing classes
	The subjects I will learn
	One thing I value the most within my first year is to pass my classes.
	Having to have able to have all my classes that I need to have a degree
	I value the experience and hard work being put into my first year.
	My schedule
	To get good grades and achieve my goals to be the best in my class
	Getting ahead with my credits.
	What I value the most is being on the right path.
	Having the most resources that will benefit me as possible
	What I value most within the first year in college is the information I'll receive.
	My understanding of the college life.
	to gain knowledge and to really know where I'm headed in life.
	My resources that will help me through El Camino.
	The thing I value most is within my first year is meeting new people & experiencing college.
	My grades
	My education & the expensive books
	Getting the feeling for what college will be like life itself. To be able to enjoy yet retain being a good student.
	Passing all my classes & not getting behind
	To learn what resources are out there to help me.
	What I value the most is the opportunity to be in the FYE program
	The best learning environment and getting to know knew people.
	the first steps into a higher education
	The effort I am going to put towards my classes and expensive books.
	Making lasting relationships and learning skills that will help in when I transfer to a university.
	Having a good relation with my professors.
	Help and guidance from staff, to help with the transition from high school to college.
	My grades

Study skills
Study skills
To pass all my classes.
To experience new things.
My grades
N/A
I value the education that is given to me & actually within in that I value a teachers time to help a student as myself out.
Getting good grades and learning more
Education
Social life
Not slacking off my first year of college passing my first year of college
Passing
To acquire the most college information possible.
Time
To stay on track, and try to get the highest GPA as possible.
I get to figure out what I want in life.
The type of education I receive.
Having a fun and great social and academic environment.
N/A
Good teachers
This whole new experience.
Taking in as much material as possible.
Consistency and focus
I value to be able to stay on track with classes.
Time management
Passing every class
Getting good grades!
What I learn
A social life
I would really like to meet a lot more people, get involved in the school and accomplish as much as I can academically.
My goals and my grades. I want to make sure school work comes first.
To make new friends and get good grades
I want to review my skills in English & Math so I can further my knowledge.
Just to simply start with my best.
What value most would be time. I can't waste it, I have to stay on task and finish so I can transfer as soon as possible.
I will most value my pencil for it will be my note taking and where my knowledge will be.
Education Me being first family member going to college
Having a good time & getting good grades.
I value my academic standing. I want to complete my needed courses so I can transfer on the right time.
Maintaining good grades
N/A
My Education Me being the first one in my family going to college
Grades
Attending all my classes
I dont know
My classes & start my freshman year on the right path.
Do good in school & not fail any classes.
My education, just passing my classes.

 What I value the most in my first year of college is new friends, have a good time and at the same time get good grades.
 I think that what value the most is well my classes.
 Getting done what needs to be done the first year.
 studying hard
 Have a good experience in college.
 The chance to further my education
 Getting good grades
 To complete the classes needed for my major.
 What I want to value this year, is to complete all the classes that I need to get degree.
 I think that what I value the most would be the opportunity that I got to be in the FYE program. The guidance I received was very helpful in this first year of college.
 I value the most my education and just having good grades my first year in college.
 To have a great college experience.
 Experiencing college courses, learning to improve not only my education, but myself.