Student Services Building Incident on March 28

On Monday, March 28, 2022, at approximately 4:53 p.m., El Camino College police officers responded to the Student Services Building regarding reports of a person exhibiting hostile behavior to staff members. When asked to leave the building, the person was overheard by several employees verbally threatening to “either bomb or blow this place up,” if police were contacted. The person then walked out of the building, without further incident. The person is described as a female, African American adult, approximately 40 years of age, wearing an animal-print scarf and a t-shirt. The El Camino College Police Department is investigating the incident and has increased security patrols throughout campus.

The El Camino Community College District is required to publicly notify the campus community of exhibited suspicious behavior that may potentially impact the general safety and security of our College.

If you have any information regarding this incident, please contact the El Camino College Police Department at 310-660-3100.
